Report to the Trustees of LCK - Charity

As described on the balance sheet you are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements for the year ended 31 May 2025 set out on pages three to six and you consider that the company is charitable non-profit company.

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are the directors for the Company Law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 act.
- To follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the Independent Examiner's report

In my opinion, attention should be drawn to the following matter in order to enable a proper understanding of the financial statements to be reached: LCK had unrestricted reserves of £7,903 as at 31 May 2025, and confirmed funding for less than 12 months from June 2025. The trustees consider the charity a going concern subject to raising funds successfully. The trustees are monitoring the charity's spending and cash flow regularly to ensure that its liabilities are met as and when they fall due. The trustees also explain this in note 1 (a) in the accounts. No other matter has come to my attention in connection with my examination to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
  - a) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
  - b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met.

As described on the balance sheet you are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements for the year ended 31 May 2023 set out on pages three to six and you consider that the company is charitable non-profit company.

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are the directors for the Company Law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 act.
- To follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the Independent Examiner's report

In my opinion, attention should be drawn to the following matter in order to enable a proper understanding of the financial statements to be reached: LCK had unrestricted reserves of £45 as at 31 May 2023, and confirmed funding for less than 12 months from June 2022. The trustees consider the charity a going concern subject to raising funds successfully. The trustees are monitoring the charity's spending and cash flow regularly to ensure that its liabilities are met as and when they fall due. The trustees also explain this in note 1 (a) in the accounts. No other matter has come to my attention in connection with my examination to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
  - a) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
  - b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met.
