Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- Promote the education of individuals under 25 years of age in any manner deemed appropriate by the charity trustees.
- Support, in ways considered suitable by the charity trustees, any charity whose objectives include advancing the education of individuals under 25 years of age.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity undertook two volunteering trips, one to India and another to Uganda across the year. Both trips successfully raised £11,000 for charitable needs.

During the year the charity also made a significant donation to a school in Bhuj, India for the purchase of computers for blind children.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The policy for holding reserves is that the trustees decide whether reserves should be maintained. Reserves are held when they serve a future purpose. In this instance, the reserves are being retained because the charity had not determined at year-end how best to allocate the funds to achieve its objectives. The trustees concluded that it would be prudent to accumulate additional funds before taking action.

Section G Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	a) Advance the education of people under the age of 25 years in such ways as the charity trustees think fit b) Assist in such ways as the charity trustees think fit any charity whose aims include advancing the education of people under the age of 25 years
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The Charity hosted two volunteering trips, one to Bhuj in Gujarat and one to Manali in Himachal Pradesh (both located in India). These took place in September 2023 for a total of 11 volunteers.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees under their responsibilities as per the guidance issued by the charity commission on public benefit and have acted with accordance to said guidance.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During its second year of incorporation, the charity focused on its first trips since incorporating, both of which were conducted successfully. The trips benefited underprivileged and lesser abled young people in India, whilst the opportunity to volunteer and be part of a team will benefited those who went.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At the end of the period the charity had a bank balance of £6,829.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The policy for holding reserves is that it is the decision of the trustees whether reserves are held, and they should be held where holding reserves serves a future purpose. The reserves in this case are being held as the charity had not made a decision at the year-end on how best to spend the funds to achieve its purposes, and the Trustees decided that it would be best to collate further funds before acting.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£6,829
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	NA
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	NA

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 11/05/2022 To 31/12/2022

Charity name: Project Care Volunteering

Charity registration number: 1198906

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objects are: 1) to advance in life and help young people up to the age of 30 through: a) the provision of support and activities which develop their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as mature and responsible individuals, in particular by inspiring and empowering them to make an impact in economically and socially disadvantaged communities in India and Uganda through meaningful volunteering; b) the provision of recreational and leisure time activities provided in the interest of social welfare, designed to improve their conditions of life. 2) to advance education for the public benefit within economically and socially disadvantaged communities in India and Uganda through the provision of grants of financial assistance and volunteer educators to support the operation of schools and to develop students through wider curriculum offer.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Once all of the setup was complete, the charity began the process of creating volunteering trips (to take place in September 2023) to India. As part of this the key activities were: - Hosted information sessions and open evenings about the charity, its past work and the volunteering trips - Built relationships with students at 5 UK universities to garner interest in the trips - Created an application process by which people could volunteer - Selected teams for the volunteering trips in 2023, beginning the fundraising process

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees understand and have kept in mind their responsibilities as per the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit and have acted with accordance to said guidance.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During its first year of incorporation, the charity focused on set-up activities and preparing for its first international trips. In terms of set up, the website and social media pages were launched, and the donation pages created. As per the charity's main activity, open evenings and information sessions were held, and applications were accepted for the 2023 trips to India, the first since the charity's incorporation. The trips will benefit underprivileged and disadvantaged children in India, whilst the opportunity to volunteer and be part of a team will benefit those who have applied to volunteer through the charity.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At the end of the period the charity had a bank balance of £157.81. This was a short year from the period of inception to 31/12/22 and the financial year was used to set up the charity and begin the planning of the trips that were due to take place in 2023.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The policy for holding reserves is that it is the decision of the trustees whether reserves are held, and they should be held where holding reserves serves a future purpose. The reserves in this case are being held as the charity has not engaged in fundraising activities, and the principal activity for which the charity acts (volunteering trips abroad) have not yet taken place.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£157.81

Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	NA
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	NA
