REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES

The trustee present their report together with the financial statement of the charity for the year ended 31st of March 2023

Object of the charity, principal activities and organisation:

The charity is governed by its constitution. The object of the charity and the principal activity continues to be that of advancing in accordance With the tenets and doctrine of Islam and promote education in the principles of Islamic faith.

The charity's regular activities include providing facilities for five times prayers in the mosque and Arabic classes for young children three days a week as well as on various special occasions such as holy nights and ceremonies.

Development activities and achievements this year:

Trustees responsibilities in relation to financial statements

Law applicable to the charities in England and wales require the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing those financial statements the trustees are required to

- * Select the trustees accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- * Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- * State whether applicable accounting standards and statement of recommended practice have been followed subject to any departure disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business

The trustees are responsible for keeping financial records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial positin of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the provisions of Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) Accounting and Reporting by Charities issued in March 2005. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approval

This report was approved by the Trustees on 06/06/2024 and signed on their behalf

Independent Examiner's report to the trustees of FRIENDS FOR LIFE AID

We report on the accounts of the Trust for the year Ended 31st March 2023, which are set out on pages ....

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and examiners

As the charity's trustee you are responsible for the preparation of the the accounts; you consider that the audit requirement of section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act) does not apply. It is our responsibility to state, on the basis of the procedure specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43(7) (b) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Direction given by the charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosure in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiners statement

In connection with our examination no matter has come to our attention:

(1) which give us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

*to keep accounting records in accordance with the section 41 of the Act;
*to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting record and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act, have not been met;

(2) To which in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts
