In the third year of operation the Charity has gone from strength to strength. We have been able to completely rebuild the church and make it into a wonderful place of worship.

The new church was officially consecrated on 23rd February 2025 by the Patriarch of Bulgaria in the presence of representatives of all Orthodox and Anglican Churches in the UK as well as hundreds of lay people. The congregation has been growing steadily and consistently and the church has become a focal point of the community not only in London but the whole of the UK.

I have thoroughly examined the financial statements, annual accounts, receipts and payments of The Bulgarian Orthodox Community of St. John of Rila in London (Charity Registration Number 1199201) for the accounting period 01/06/2024-31/05/2025.

For the above accounting period the Charity has collected £320,769 in income , fully from charitable donations and Gift Aid, and has spent £457,203 in expenses in connection with its charitable works, mainly for the renovation of the church facilities, as well for day to day running of the charity, so that it can better serve the congregation as well as the wider community. None of the trustees has received any remuneration or fees. The shortfall has been fully covered by the previous year's bank balances.

I am satisfied with the annual accounts of the Charity and have found them to be a true reflection of the Charity's financial status.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are:

- a) To advance for the Public Benefit the Orthodox Christian Faith
- b) To establish, maintain and develop for the Public Benefit a parish in London, to provide liturgical services, sacrament and pastoral teaching, according to the rites and doctrines of the Orthodox Church.

Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the CIO for the purposes which are not charitable in accordance with section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2009 and section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

In the second year of operation the Charity has gone from strength to strength. We have been able to hold regular church services in St. John of Rila Chapel in the Bulgarian Embassy in Central London until November 2023. The congregation has been growing steadily and consistently.

The Charity has obtained permission from the Bulgarian government, the Bulgarian Patriarchate as well as from the British authorities to renovate and extend the Chapel of St. John of Rila for the benefit of the growing congregation. A fundraising campaign was started and initial legal and building work began for the conversion of the chapel into a church. In the reporting year, a total of £182433 was raised towards the project. The work began with the intention to complete it within 18 months. During that time Church services were moved to the Greek Orthodox Church of Saint Pantaleimon in Harrow.

Independent Examiner's Report

I have thoroughly examined the financial statements, annual accounts, receipts and payments of The Bulgarian Orthodox Community of St. John of Rila in London (Charity Registration Number 1199201) for the accounting period 01/06/2022-31/05/2023.

For the above accounting period the Charity has collected £25530 in income, fully from donations, and has spent £22272 on expenses in connection with its charitable works, mainly for the renovation of the church facilities so that they can better serve the congregation as well as the wider community. None of the trustees has received any remuneration or fees.

I am satisfied with the annual accounts of the Charity and have found them to be a true reflection of the Charity's financial status.
