Trustees' Report for the Year Ended 5 April 2024

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the period 15 July 2022 to 5 April 2023. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

Objectives and activities

Objectives and aims

For the public benefit, to advance the education and training of Afghan legal professionals who have been re-settled as refugees in the UK as part of a UK government scheme such as Afghan Relocations and Assistance Policy (ARAP) or Afghan Citizens Resettlement Scheme (ACRS) and who are in need, in order to advance them in life and assist them in adapting to a new community.

Significant activities

- Regular English lessons (two 3-hour lessons per week)
- Online lectures and seminars on English law
- In-person events for community building, professional networking and preparing beneficiaries for working in professional environments in the UK

Achievement and performance

Charitable activities

Legal Afghan Working Group (LAW-G) has provided two 3-hour English lessons a week (using a registered and well regarded English language teaching college) to beneficiaries. These regular classes have enabled all beneficiaries to learn and improve their English which is key to them settling in the UK and navigating their new environments, following often difficult and dangerous journeys to the UK. The regularity and frequency of the sessions LAW-G provides has enabled the group to create an important community for the beneficiaries as they adapt to their new lives in the UK and manage living with the impacts of leaving their homes, jobs, families and friends, and the plights of those loved ones who remained.

The online lectures and in-person events have provided further opportunities for beneficiaries to build their community. The lectures and events have also ensured ongoing intellectual stimulation for beneficiaries during a period in which work was not possible. This was particularly important for this group who left full, demanding careers suddenly. They have also provided a baseline understanding of English law and UK workplace culture, which is enabling beneficiaries to decide whether to pursue law or other careers in the UK and practical support in applying for and securing jobs.

Financial review

Financial position

LAW-G ended the period with reserves of £35,815, with a surplus of £119 over the year (2023: reserves of £35,696).

In the next financial year, fundraising may be more challenging as the plight of our beneficiaries becomes less visible to donors. In addition, LAW-G is expanding services to a new cohort who require intensive English lessons which means costs will increase.

However, given the current levels of reserves and the trustees' fundraising efforts to date, we are confident that with prudent financial management and a continued focus on fundraising we will be able to continue providing services to LAW-G's beneficiaries as planned.

Trustees' Report for the Year Ended 5 April 2024

Financial review

Reserves policy

Reserves are held in anticipation of fundraising becoming increasingly difficult over time, as public concern about the plight of Afghan refugees diminishes over time due to other more recent refugee crises. These reserves will ensure LAW-G's ability to continue providing a core service (English lessons) and make grants to individual beneficiaries in the future where there is a demonstrable benefit to be achieved in line with LAW-G's charitable objectives.

Structure, governance and management

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust and constitutes an incorporated charity (registered number: CE029735)

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

Principal future risks

- Fundraising becoming more challenging as the plight of our beneficiary population is 'overtaken' by other crises and causes.
- The possibility of our beneficiary pool growing and exceeding our management capacity and/or funds.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Legal Afghan Working Group

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Legal Afghan Working Group ('the charity') for the period ended 5 April 2023 which comprise the summary of receipts and payments and the statement of assets and liabilities.

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with section 145 of the Charities Act 2011. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them in this report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for my work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the trustees of the charity you are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's financial statements carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

An independent examination does not involve gathering all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently does not cover all the matters that an auditor considers in giving their opinion on the financial statements. The planning and conduct of an audit goes beyond the limited assurance that an independent examination can provide. Consequently I express no opinion as to whether the financial statements present a 'true and fair' view and my report is limited to those specific matters set out in the independent examiner's statement.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
- the financial statements do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the financial statements to be reached.
