Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 18th July 2022 Period start date to 5th April 2023

Charity name: Lifted Life Charity

Charity registration number: 1199698

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	Lifted Life Charity, registered under charity number 1199698, was established to advance the Christian faith in London and Surrey. The Charity's main objectives include broadcasting Christian messages of an evangelistic and teaching nature, as well as conducting pastoral and outreach work. This work notably includes efforts for the relief of poverty. The charity focuses on benefitting the public through these activities, as outlined in its governing document established as a CIO - Foundation on 18th July 2022.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The main activities of Lifted Life Charity, in relation to its purposes for public benefit, include operating a community-focused radio station. This station broadcasts a diverse range of music and talk shows, aiming to promote mental wellness, encourage faith, and create a sense of community. The Charity integrates music therapy, inspirational messages, and audience engagement to enhance mental health awareness and provide support. Collaborations with local organizations, mental health professionals, and volunteers are central to its operations. These activities, reflected in the Volunteer DJ Handbook, demonstrate the Charity's commitment to uplifting and supporting its community through music and broadcast media.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	In preparing this report, the trustees of Lifted Life Charity have duly considered the guidance issued by the Charity Commission regarding public benefit. This includes ensuring that the Charity's activities align with the principles of public benefit as outlined in the guidance. The trustees remain committed to fulfilling their obligations under this guidance, continually assessing and adapting the Charity's operations to meet these standards and effectively serve the community.

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	Lifted Life Charity has successfully achieved its objectives by creating a meaningful impact through its volunteer-driven radio broadcasts. The Charity's DJs have played a pivotal role in promoting mental wellness and community support, effectively using music as a tool for healing and connection. Their diligent adherence to broadcasting standards and compliance with legal requirements has reinforced the charity's credibility. The impact of Lifted Life's work is evident in the positive feedback from listeners and the growing community engagement, demonstrating a significant contribution to the welfare of its beneficiaries and society.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	Lifted Life Charity's fundraising performance, catered around donations received through its radio broadcasts, has been promising, considering the early stage of the Charity's development. While the Charity has not yet launched its full range of activities and initiatives, the radio platform has successfully begun to generate financial support. This initial fundraising success lays a strong foundation for future growth and indicates a positive response from the community, aligning with the Charity's objectives to build engagement and support through its broadcasting efforts.
Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41	The investment performance of Lifted Life Charity, prior to its formal incorporation, was pivotal in establishing its operational foundation. The initial focus was on procuring essential broadcasting equipment, such as DJ controllers and computers, funded by personal contributions from the members. This demonstrated their deep commitment to the charity's cause. Following incorporation, the Charity judiciously used donations to enhance its digital presence. This included hiring a web technician for website development and transitioning to Radio.co, a comprehensive internet radio broadcasting platform. These strategic investments were critical in enhancing the charity's broadcasting capabilities, expanding its reach, and laying a solid foundation for future growth and impact.

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	Currently, Lifted Life Charity's principal source of funding is through its radio broadcasts. The Charity relies on donations received from listeners and supporters engaged with their radio programming. This source of funds is vital for the charity's operations and growth, particularly at this stage where it is focusing on establishing its presence and impact in the community through its broadcasting activities.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	Lifted Life Charity's investment policy and objectives are centered on utilizing resources efficiently to further its mission. Currently, the focus is on investing in essential infrastructure and equipment needed for effective broadcasting and operations. This includes investments in technology like DJ equipment and software for radio broadcasting. The charity also prioritizes investments that enhance its digital presence, such as website development and online broadcasting platforms. There is no specific social investment policy adopted at this time, as the primary investment goal is building a strong operational base to support its core activities.
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	During the period of 18 th July 2022 to 5 th April 2023, Lifted Life Charity faced principal risks primarily related to the COVID-19 pandemic. The lockdowns and restrictions significantly impacted fundraising opportunities and community engagement, leading to limited donations. The reliance on a single source of funding, through radio broadcasts, also presented a risk due to potential fluctuations in listener engagement and support. Additionally, operational challenges, including adapting to remote broadcasting and maintaining volunteer involvement during lockdowns, were key risks that the charity needed to navigate.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:		Lifted Life Charity does not hold specific funds or assets designated as trusts. Financial contributions primarily come from the CEO's monthly donation of £35, which is used to pay for the Radiojar platform, enabling the charity to broadcast its programming. Additionally, listener donations are collected and held in the Lifted Life account. This structure indicates a straightforward financial model focused on maintaining essential operational capabilities, particularly the radio broadcasting service, which is central to the charity's activities.
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	The governing document for Lifted Life Charity is a Charitable Incorporated Organization (CIO) - Foundation type.
How is the charity constituted? (e.g unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	Lifted Life Charity is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organization (CIO) - Foundation type. This legal structure is specifically chosen for its suitability for charities in the UK, offering benefits such as limited liability and a separate legal identity. This allows the Charity to conduct its business, hold assets, and enter into contracts in its own name, providing a solid and flexible framework for its operations and governance.
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	The trustee selection method for Lifted Life Charity, a foundation Charitable Incorporated Organization (CIO), involves the current trustees appointing new trustees. This method, detailed in their governing document, ensures a coherent and mission-aligned expansion of the trustee board. This process allows the charity to maintain continuity in its governance and strategic direction, aligning with its core mission and values. The trustees are responsible for ensuring that new appointees are fit and proper persons to act in such a capacity, maintaining the integrity and effectiveness of the charity's governance.
