

Waveney & Blyth Arts

Report on activities 1 April 2024-31 March 2025

Although Waveney & Blyth Arts was showing signs of the pressures that would result in this being its penultimate year, there were a handful of successful activities

Sculpture garden

WBA has been showing sculpture at Potton Hall for several years. This has taken different forms but has always been well attended. This year was no exception: ten artists displayed two works each. And the season closed with food and singing.

Fen and beach

A WBA trustee since its inception 15 years ago, Simon Raven hosted two events during the year. One he hosted at his cottage on the fen by Dunwich Forest, featuring his very varied 'ideas in search of an artist'. He also led another of his popular walks beachcombing at Covehithe.

Magic, mists & mellow fruitfulness

This was the title of a really well-attended tour of Bungay's spooky side.

Behind the glass

Surinder Warboys is a distinguished stained glass artist and a WBA member. An afternoon visiting her Mellis workshop and seeing a display of her work was a sell-out.

Midwinter light

WBA celebrated Burns night at Wingfield Barns, with an afternoon of poetry and song: Burns and other readings, and a select group of singers led by WBA trustee Janet Koralambe and drawn from the choirs she organises locally.
