Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The relief of sickness and the preservation and protection of the good health of young people aged between 11-25 by supporting research into cancer treatment and providing a network of support and information for young people and their families/carers in the UK
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	We supported and organised a zip wire off the Tyne bridge with the support of Jelly Legs which 60 people participated in which raised a total of 4300.71 We were able to secure spaces for the great north run which we had 15 runners complete and held a presence in charity Village. We held our second charity night which included a live and silent auction, an in-house raffle and out of house raffle. We also had immediate win prizes. We have liaised with another small charity who carry out and fund research. We have been communicating and arranging to contribute funds into a project which is carrying out research into the developing a blood test to diagnose Ewing sarcoma. We are also contributing funds to other charities which make an impact to the lives of those who have a diagnosis of cancer. We are contributing to the little princess trust who provide real hair wigs to young people with cancer. We are increasing our presence in the community to be a support to young people and their families/carers. We have developed our relationships with other charities and professionals and liaise with them to support research projects. We had a number of people complete their own fundraising events, we supported by sharing on our social media accounts and promoting their events.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	All trustees are aware of the Charity Commissions guidance on public benefit.

Set out on pages

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
