Two testimonials from beneficiaries of The Arising:

"What I have experienced over these last few months is not the forced duty of an "accountability partner", nor the bookish wisdom of a "spiritual mentor", nor even the kind intentions of a mere friend, but the coming alongside of a fellow Jesus-lover, who has brought such deep heart-fellowship and soul-nourishment through moments that can only be described as holy. Andy is indeed a partner, a mentor and a friend, but this ministry is so much more than that. He is not a well-trained or highly experienced counsellor adept at guiding people through proven technique and formula, but a man who makes a habit of being with God, and who has learned - and goes on learning - to submit to the presence and leading of the Wonderful Counsellor.

Andy walks in humility, in love and with vulnerability about his own weaknesses, which always opens the door wide for true transparency and honest confession. I am going through a difficult season in my life, but these informal, ad-hoc sessions together have had a profound impact on me; I am enriched, enlightened, encouraged and more in love with the One whose presence is so near and tangible every time we meet. What baffles me most is that, despite feeling like I contribute so little except the brokenness of my own life, Andy seems to truly enjoy and benefit from these precious times together too; it can only be a God

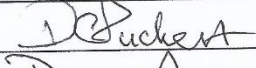

thing". Chris, UK

2nd Testimony "Monday nights (Group mentoring through Rees Howells' Intercessor book) are one of the highlights of my week. I look forward to gathering and reading how incredible our Father is and how He makes seemingly impossible situations possible. Not just have I been deeply challenged, convicted and moved to tears over this man's radical life for our Saviour, but I have also been welcomed into a family of people who are pursuing our Lord in much the same way. I glance over my screen each week; smiling I thank God for blessing me with a like hearted tribe to run alongside. It has- and continues to be, a true joy!" - Chloe, UK
