Objectives and activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document		To promote the production of classic Christian literature, developmental manuals, and workshops for Christian ministry, which will benefit the public through Christian doctrine through internet radio and publication. To advance the Christian faith through internet radio, social media, podcast, and evangelical activities for the benefit of the public, mainly but not exclusively through broadcasting; promotion, production and distribution of classic Christian literature, developmental manuals, and workshops. To provide evangelical and pastoral care to overcome some impairment by restoring the person to wholeness through the broadcasting messages and literature provided on the internet radio website, and organised seminars and live interactive shows via webinar, Zoom and other means, like organised physical face-to-face conferences. FRN's evangelical and pastoral care, via broadcasting, will seek to sustain the hurting, lonely, and helpless person by helping them find hope and restoration of purpose through Internet radio, broadcast teachings, prayers, and gospel music sessions. FRN's evangelical and pastoral care seeks to reconcile and re-establish broken relationships between individuals and between man and God through inspirational broadcasting messages and other evangelical and pastoral tools, such as podcasts, pastoral counselling, prayers, and inspirational words and music.

Summary of the main activities about those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.		FRN has continued to promote its aim of producing classic Christian literature through internet radio and webinar seminars on Christian leadership. Providing counselling support and supporting the homeless was a huge success.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit		Yes, the trustees stay true to the objective and purpose of FRN's existence and demonstrate this by positively impacting and supporting people to encourage them to progress, especially after the pandemic. Moreover, the trustees confirm that they have given due regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit. They continue to adhere to this guidance in planning and carrying out the activities of FRN.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	FRN began the year as many others. Since June 2022, FRN, despite the global economic situation, has continued to broadcast and support the social well-being of those in need. FRN has played a significant role since the start of this global economic crisis by offering counselling assistance, encouragement, and guidance on where people can seek further help. Focusing mainly on social media—Zoom, FaceTime, MS Teams, and the internet—to deliver most of our services, creating significant impacts, as 26 mid-youth benefit from the training provided. The services provided benefit our immediate community, as most of the “not in education, employment or training” (NEET) children come in to learn broadcasting.
