Objectives and activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The Millrace Foundation (hereafter "The Charity" or "The Foundation" or "Millrace") provides therapeutic activities in the form of training in furniture restoration for adults who suffer from mental health and associated difficulties. The charity operates in Chelmsford, covering the Chelmsford area and Mid-Essex. The Millrace Foundation is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation, established in Sept 2022.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The objects of the Foundation are principally, but not exclusively within Chelmsford and surrounding Districts in the Country of Essex (hereinafter referred to as the "area of benefit"). Its objects shall be for the public benefit and are specifically restricted to the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) The relief of adults in the area of benefit who are experiencing one or more of the following: social isolation or exclusion; mental or physical ill health; learning disabilities; in recovery from drug or alcohol addiction; in recovery from a major life trauma; old age, by assisting them to integrate into society through the following activities:<ol style="list-style-type: none">a. Active participation in a supported work environment in groups of mixed ability and background.b. Additional support to enable a progression into work, education, training, or beneficial activity as the Trustees see fit from time to time.2) To promote health by assisting in the treatment and care of persons with mental or physical illness, learning difficulties and /or in recovery from addiction or in need of rehabilitation by

		the provision of a safe, structured, therapeutic work environment from which to build their individual capacity and workplace skills so as they may return to work or improve their well-being and quality of life. 3) To advance the education of disadvantaged adults (see item 1 above) in the area of benefit by providing affordable structured or accredited training in the restoration of furniture and other household items by promoting the use of arts and crafts as therapy. 4) The fulfilling of such other purposes as may from time to time be recognised by English law as being charitable and which the Charity shall from time to time determine.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	During the financial year ending 31 March 2024, the trustees have had regard to the Charity Commissions' guidance on public benefit.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During this first full year of operations, the charity supported 10 beneficiaries with the benefit of consistent grant funding from a diverse range of providers, having employed its two trainers (previously volunteers), to ensure continuity of training to existing beneficiaries and capacity for new beneficiaries which joined during the year. The charity surveyed existing beneficiaries to assess the impact the services were having, and the results were very positive. Feedback provided emphasised the benefits of the charity's training programmes, including supporting routine, a sense of purpose, focus and self-esteem, while enhancing social connectedness. As two founding trustees stepped away, 3 new trustees joined, bringing with them experience in project management, finance, social media and marketing.

Financial review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At the end of the reporting period, after donations were used to meet costs, the charity held assets of £3,996, comprising amounts defined as cash in hand and also prepayment of insurance. This is before liabilities falling due within one year are applied.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Reserves represent residual balances from donations, grants or other income, which has not yet been spent but will be used in future periods to meet costs of providing training services to beneficiaries and related governance costs or other expenses.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£2,347 as at 31Mar2024 Balance sheet date. This comprises assets of cash and a prepayment offset by liabilities, as explained in the notes to the charity's annual accounts. The reserves represent a year-on-year increase of £2,018 compared to the FYE31March2023 balance of £329.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	NA

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	During this financial period, the principal sources of funds were 5 grants and 2 donations from a related party. We are very grateful to the grant-making bodies and donors for these contributions to our work in the community. In future periods, the charity intends to diversify the sources of funds so the charity can gradually become more self-sufficient.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The charity has 2 main risks. The first is ongoing access to funding. This is mitigated by proactive engagement with grant-awarding bodies, plans to diversify revenue streams. The second is capacity, as we are always enthusiastic to take on new beneficiaries, but must do so in a measured way to prevent compromising the service to existing beneficiaries, or over-stretching our two employees.

Structure, governance and management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document: for example, trust deed , memorandum and articles of association etc	Para 1.25	The Millrace Foundation's governing document is its Charitable Incorporated Organisation constitution.
How is the charity constituted? for example limited company , unincorporated association , CIO	Para 1.25	The Charity is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO)
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	The Charity recruits and appoints new trustees in accordance with its constitutional provisions. The Charity reaches out through predominantly online channels to attract individuals with an interest in the Charity's activities and who demonstrate the necessary skills that the Charity may need at the time. To become a trustee, the individual must submit a CV, read the Charity Commission's guidance and other material specific to Millrace, and meet at least one of the extant trustees and at least one of the Charity's employees before they are presented to a quorate meeting for appointment by one or more of the trustees.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees	Para 1.51	The charity has policies and procedures for induction based on Charity Commission guidelines.
The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51
Relationship with any related parties	Para 1.51	The Millrace Foundation has a legacy connection to The Millrace Furniture Co-operative, and still benefits from access to resources, notably premises, equipment, and materials which are charged to it "at cost" rather than at the prevailing market rates. Subsequently, The Millrace Furniture Co-operative is considered to be a related party. Full disclosure of related party transactions can be found in the CIO's Annual Accounts (CC17a format).

Other		During this first full year of operations, the original Charity Trustees sought to appoint additional trustees with appropriate skills to support the Charity in the long-term; incl. governance, finance, marketing, and project management skills. These individuals were subsequently appointed in late 2023 and early 2024, allowing a transition as two original Trustees resigned over the same period. Subsequently, both past and current Trustees are listed in this Annual Report, which is signed off by the current Trustees in post at the end of the reporting period.

2.2 INCOME

Recognition of income

These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when:

- the charity becomes entitled to the resources;
- it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources;
- the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Yes*	No*	N/a*

Offsetting

There has been no offsetting of assets and liabilities, or income and expenses, unless required or permitted by the FRS 102 SORP or FRS 102.

Yes*	No*	N/a*

Grants and donations

Grants and donations are only included in the SoFA when the general income recognition criteria are met (5.10 to 5.12 FRS102 SORP).

Yes*	No*	N/a*
✓	✓	✓

In the case of performance related grants, income must only be recognised to the extent that the charity has provided the specified goods or services as entitlement to the grant only occurs when the performance related conditions are met (5.16 FRS 102 SORP).

Yes*	No*	N/a*

Legacies

Legacies are included in the SoFA when receipt is probable, that is, when there has been grant of probate, the executors have established that there are sufficient assets in the estate and any conditions attached to the legacy are either within the control of the charity or have been met.

Yes*	No*	N/a*

Government grants

The charity has received government grants in the reporting period

Yes*	No*	N/a*

Tax reclaims on donations and gifts

Gift Aid receivable is included in income when there is a valid declaration from the donor. Any Gift Aid amount recovered on a donation is considered to be part of that gift and is treated as an addition to the same fund as the initial donation unless the donor or the terms of the appeal have specified otherwise.

Contractual income and performance related grants

This is only included in the SoFA once the charity has provided the related goods or services or met the performance related conditions.

Section CNotes to the accounts*(cont)*Note 22 Other disclosures for debtors, creditors and other basic financial instruments

22.1 Please provide information about the significance of financial instruments (eg. debtors, creditors, investments etc) to the charity's financial position or performance, for example, the terms and conditions of loans or the use of hedging to manage financial risk.

This year	Last year
Creditors falling due within 1 year total £1,649.76. This comprises 1) £1,500 loan repaid after the balance sheet date. 2) £148.76 National Insurance contribution liability - salaries fall below the NI threshold, however, a reporting date error in the HMRC system has generated an NI liability which will fall due for payment during FYE2025. There is only one debtor of £502.13 which is a prepayment relating to insurance. Insurance for calendar year 2024 was paid as a lump sum during December 2023, the benefit of which is only partly recognised in the FYE2024 accounting period, with the value attributable to FYE2025 recorded as a prepayment (Debtor, see Note 19).

22.2 If the charity has provided financial assets as a form of security, the carrying amount of the financial assets pledged as security and the terms and conditions related to its pledge should be given here.

Events after the end of the reporting period

Please complete this note events (not requiring adjustment to the accounts) have occurred after the end of the reporting period but before the accounts are authorised which relate to conditions that arose after the end of the reporting period.

	This year	Last year
Please provide details of the nature of the event	After the end of the reporting period, the loan £1,500 was repaid in two instalments in April 2024 and May 2024. The Charity has also been granted new grants from charitable organisations.	At the end of the reporting period, the Charity had submitted 2 grant applications, and had received 1 positive response to give comfort on having sufficient income to continue its activities beyond the financial period ending 31 March 2023.
Provide an estimate of the financial effect of the event or a statement that such an estimate cannot be made	The financial effect is that the Charity saw its cash on hand balance reduce by £1,500 but this has been offset by incoming grants.	NA
