Report of the Trustees for the Year Ended 31 December 2024

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

Our charity's purposes as set out in the objects contained in the constitution are as follows:

The promotion for the public benefit of ethical standards of conduct by the UK media and press by:

educating the public on the ethical standards of conduct and the impact of unethical conduct by the media and press; and providing information, advice and assistance to those who have been affected by a breach of ethical standards of conduct.

We pursue these objects by:

- Providing advice to victims of wrongdoing in the press
- Connecting victims of wrongdoing with further expertise and support, where appropriate
- Educating the public about press standards
- Educating students on the importance of high standards in the press
- Bringing together experts and others working in the field of press standards, to increase shared understanding of the issues faced by the public in respect of press wrongdoing

Significant activities

Education

The charity set up social media accounts, and began using them to spread the word about the charity's work and services.

Universities were also contacted to offer guest lectures on press standards, for the following year.

Fundraising and events

On 17th October 2024 the charity had its first fundraising and educational event, hosted by Brown Rudnick. The event was an opportunity to introduce professionals in the industries which work on press standards to the work of the charity.

Victim liaison

The PJP had contact with 24 individuals seeking assistance with cases of press wrongdoing in 2024.

All support is provided in confidence and the charity avoids disclosing details, to reduce the risk of jigsaw identification.

A sample of five anonymised cases show the forms of support the PJP provides:

1. Intrusion over historic events. Advised on preemptive IPSO contact & media management.
2. Inaccuracy, intrusion, discrimination, possible libel. Advised on media engagement, IPSO contact & recommended legal advice.
3. Inaccuracy; awaiting outcome of relevant proceedings before taking further.
4. Inaccuracy & intrusion into grief. Advised on IPSO complaint & media engagement.
5. Historic, unproven allegations. Referred to data rights specialist (MyCleanSlate).

The Press Justice Project

Public benefit

The PJP primarily assists individuals affected by press misconduct. We assist these people through:

- A form on our website, through which members of the public can reach out for help and information
- A form hosted on the website of "Hacked Off", a separate organisation through which people can get in touch
- Contacting individuals pro-actively to offer assistance, when we identify someone we believe might benefit from the charity's advice

The PJP assists anyone affected by wrongdoing in the press. Most beneficiaries are not well-known, and are thrust into the media spotlight by events outside of their control.

We also help students through lectures on press standards at universities across the UK.

Our events raise funds for the charity and indirectly help beneficiaries by creating a forum for professionals operating in industries which deal with the media to exchange ideas and advice to raise standards. We also offer complimentary tickets to students and charities at risk of press misrepresentation.

Social investments

Development & outcomes:

The charity has made progress in a number of areas in 2024.

Operations and governance:

In mid-late 2024 the website was redesigned to increase public visibility of the charity's services and activities.

The charity also appointed Francesca Klug OBE to the Board of Trustees, taking the total number of Trustees to 6.

The PJP is committed to the highest standards of governance. Despite being a relatively small organisation, by the end of 2024 the charity agreed policies in the following areas:

- Brand guidelines policy
- Bullying and Harassment Policy
- Campaigning Policy
- Complaints Policy
- Conflicts of interest policy
- Expenses policy
- Financial Control Policy
- Health and safety policy
- Privacy policy (data protection)
- Reserves policy
- Risk management policy
- Safeguarding policy
- Serious incident reporting policy
- Social media policy
- Speaker Policy

Finally, at the end of 2024 the PJP agreed to establish a "Council" of high qualified volunteers.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Press Justice Project

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of The Press Justice Project ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
