Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	During the reporting period, the charity has continued its foundational work, focusing on strategic partnerships and securing funding to launch its first major public exhibitions. Although financial activity remained inactive during this specific 12-month period (with £0 income and £0 expenditure recorded), the Trustees have been highly active behind the scenes. The primary focus has been on developing the concept, securing a venue partner, and applying for grant funding for our inaugural multi-sensory exhibition, "The Power of Honey: Food, Finance and the Golden Age of Fraud." This preparatory work is essential for setting up the charity's future operations and ensuring we can deliver high-quality educational and cultural services to the public.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
--	----------------	--

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.

Para 1.20

During this reporting period trustees and executives have been highly active, the charity has transitioned from early-stage strategic development into active project planning and fundraising. Key achievements include:

Project Development and Venue Partnership: We have successfully developed the concept for our first major exhibition, "The Power of Honey: Food, Finance and the Golden Age of Fraud." We have made significant progress in establishing a partnership with The Bank of England Museum to host this multi-sensory exhibition, which will directly fulfil our educational objects.

Post-Period Funding Success: While no funds were received during the 2024–2025 financial year, the preparatory work undertaken during this period directly resulted in a major funding success shortly after the period end. In March 2026, the charity was formally awarded a £20,000 restricted grant from the City of London Corporation's Central Grants Programme (Destination City Partnership Fund). This grant is specifically designated to fund the "Power of Honey" exhibition at The Bank of England Museum.

Furthermore, our delivery partner has secured an additional £50,000 in external funding to support this event. This combined funding demonstrates that the charity is now moving into an active operational phase and has successfully secured the resources needed to deliver significant public benefit in the upcoming year.

Financial Review

CHARITY COMMISSION FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	As of the end of the reporting period (30 June 2025), the charity remains in a stable financial position, with no financial transactions (£0 income, £0 expenditure) recorded during the year. This reflects the charity's ongoing development phase, where activities were focused on planning and grant applications rather than active trading or fundraising. However, as noted above, the charity has successfully secured a £20,000 restricted grant from the City of London Corporation subsequent to the year-end. This funding will be reflected in the accounts for the 2025–2026 financial period and provides the necessary capital to commence our charitable activities.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity has recently adopted a formal Financial Reserves Policy. However, as the charity has not yet commenced trading or received unrestricted income, it currently holds zero free reserves. The Trustees intend to build a reserve fund equivalent to 3 to 6 months of core operating costs once regular unrestricted income streams are established, to

Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	During the reporting period, the charity has continued its foundational work, with particular focus on securing a suitable venue for its operations. Although financial activity has remained inactive during this period, we have made significant strides in negotiating potential venues and establishing relationships with stakeholders. Although no venue has yet been finalised, we are in advanced negotiations, and we remain optimistic about securing a venue in the near future. This venue will serve as the primary location for our exhibitions and educational programs, fulfilling our charity's mission of advancing public understanding of the history and culture of food. We anticipate that once the venue is confirmed, we will formally launch our services and begin delivering the full scope of our activities. These preparatory activities are crucial to establishing the infrastructure needed to effectively deliver services to the public in alignment with the charity's purposes. The efforts undertaken during this phase are designed to ensure that, once operational, the charity will provide meaningful benefit to its intended beneficiaries.

CHARITY COMMISSION FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	As of the end of the reporting period, the charity remains in a stable financial position, with no significant financial transactions recorded. This is in line with the charity's ongoing development phase, as we have not yet begun full operations or fundraising activities. We are maintaining a cautious approach to financial management while we finalise the venue and establish our operational infrastructure. Once the venue is secured, we anticipate the beginning of fundraising and grant applications to support our core objectives and operational costs. The charity is well-positioned to transition to the next phase of its development once the necessary operational elements are in place. The charity's activities have been largely preparatory during this period, as we focus on securing a venue and establishing foundational partnerships. Although there have been no financial transactions to report, these activities are essential for setting up the charity's future operations. We remain optimistic that we will be able to confirm a venue soon and begin delivering our educational and cultural services to the public in the upcoming period.

CHARITY COMMISSION FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At the end of the reporting period, the charity's financial position remains stable, with no significant financial activity recorded. This reflects the fact that the charity is still in its implementation phase and has not yet commenced full operations, including fundraising or service delivery. As such, there are no major expenditures or income to report for this period. The charity is maintaining a cautious approach to financial management during this phase, focusing on laying the groundwork for future activities. This includes identifying a suitable venue and planning for the operational costs that will arise once the charity is fully functional. The absence of financial transactions during the period aligns with the charity's current stage of development. Going forward, the charity intends to initiate fundraising efforts and secure necessary resources to support its core objectives and future activities. In summary, the charity remains in a sound financial position with no liabilities or obligations at this time, and is well-placed to move into its next phase of development as soon as the necessary operational elements are in place.
