Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The advancement of Christian Religion in the United Kingdom in particular but not exclusively by producing and distributing Christian literature, holding of lectures and distributing Christian literature, holding of lectures and seminars to enlighten others about the Christian religion, providing facilities for public worship and prayer, providing pastoral care and carrying out outreach work.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aims and objectives and in planning our future activities.

The vision of the church is "Saving souls and making them better through Christ." To help achieve this, the following objectives have been set: To expand and develop the ministry of CHMI through Sunday and mid-week worship services, children's ministries, youth ministries, prayer and ministry training, bible studies and small groups meetings.

To minister to the congregation and the local community through family life, relationship and other ministry programmes.

To establish social programmes to provide food, clothes and shelter for the needy and care for the sick.

To educate and equip the congregation and other churches in the practice of ministry through CHMI based conferences.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The church's activities are available to Christians and non-Christians, members and non-members alike; there is no restriction to attendance. The community have been attracted to and enjoyed our weekly services, conferences and programmes. During the year under review, various live changing conferences were held where participants were challenged to make a difference in their environment.

We minister to the congregation and the local community by emphasising on the virtues and importance of strong families, values of voting and social responsibility, continually advocates self-development and business enterprise through seminars, workshops and practical advice.

Seeking new followers or adherent - The members in general and the Evangelism team regularly go out to preach the Gospel in different locations and areas.

We also aid the local community by providing career counselling, pre and post marital counselling, bereavement counselling, hospital visits, prison visits, welfare provision, prayer support, men and women's meetings and supporting local charities.

Volunteers

Members of the charity who are professionals in their various field of work and study volunteered in different capacities during the year under review and their work has not been quantified.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Calvary House Ministries International aims to maintain reserves equal to 3 months of annual expenditure to ensure financial stability and safeguard its mission during unexpected challenges. Reserves will be used only for covering deficits, unforeseen expenses, or opportunities aligned with the charity's objectives. The target reserve level will be reviewed annually by the Board of Trustees to ensure it remains appropriate. Reserves will be managed and monitored regularly through quarterly reports, with decisions on their use requiring trustee approval. If reserves fall below the target, a strategy will be developed to replenish them over time. This policy will be reviewed annually to ensure its continued relevance to the charity's financial health and goals.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
