Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The advancement of education of children and young people aged 3 – 18 years old experiencing poverty and financial hardship through the provision of; the procurement of health supplies, educational resources such as books and/or equipment, access to mainstream education, non-food items or any other supplies in Uganda, Sierra Leone, Zambia, Kenya and Zimbabwe.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Collection of, packaging and shipment of paperback books to send to orphans and underprivileged children in Uganda.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	Our vision and purpose is to inspire children with the gift of reading. Since our inception we have worked hard to provide a constant flow of books to children in orphanages and underprivileged areas in Uganda. We have solely concentrated on Uganda to ensure our strategy is sound. In total, we provided 700kg of books donated by families across the UK. These donations have given 3,000 children the opportunity to read. We partner with already established orphanages or schools and go to places many would not venture and where there is a lack of reading resources. Our founder became an orphan at the age of 15 and as she struggled to come to terms with her grief and predicament, storybooks became her refuge and escape. They showed me that there was a whole world beyond what she could see before her. Books are the gift her mother left her with and this is the basis of Lorna, her mother's legacy.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Our books are changing lives both in the UK and sub Saharan Africa. We are taking unwanted books and gifting them to children who need them the most. To be more impactful we have set social media milestones, structured our shipments to $\frac{3}{4}$ per year and ensured we only collect paperback books to keep the weight down and therefore send more books.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Our position is per the accounts with funds in accounts at approximately £498
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity is required to consider what level of reserves it is appropriate for the charity to hold in order to demonstrate appropriate financial management, stewardship and sustainability. The trustees wish to do this to provide assurance to all the charity's stakeholders that the charity is being managed in a prudent manner for the best interests of its beneficiaries. The trustees also want to provide confidence that there is a strong justification for the reserves held by the charity, and that they wish to be open and transparent on all aspects concerning the charity's reserves policy. In doing the Lorna Legacy has considered the its working capital, financial risk and future development.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£140
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	Smallest shipment to make a reasonable impact on our recipients. Shipment costs approximately £2.99/kg
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	We are not in deficit
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	Currently engaging heavily in fundraising to ensure we can cover all future shipments. We have recently sent out £921.74 which would leave us in a deficit of £423 when cleared. We are mobilising funds at the moment.
