MEISTAD ABUNDANT FAITH

The charity has continued its work providing activities to advance the Christian faith through weekly Fridays and Sundays church services, Sunday school for children, bible studies and outreach, in line with the purpose and objectives of the charity, including:

1. Providing education about the Christian faith to the public in line with our statement of faith and beliefs in Jesus Christ.
2. Preventing hardship and poverty in the community by providing food, clothes and financial awareness information for families

In December 2023, a concert of evangelism was organised by the charity, with gospel artists invited from all over the world.

Given that the charity predominantly operates in the North of England, Leeds and the surrounding regions, small branches of the church were successfully opened in Bradford and Huddersfield during the year
