(eg trust, association, company)Trustee selection methods
(eg appointed by, elected by)

Additional governance issues (optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
 - relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity has adopted policies for trustee recruitment and induction, safeguarding, conflicts of interest and financial management. The board regularly reviews risks and governance arrangements. Trustees meet monthly and communicate between meetings to ensure oversight of strategy, operations and compliance.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are to support women and people affected by Premature Ovarian Insufficiency (POI) by providing information, resources, peer support, and advocacy; to raise awareness of POI among the public and healthcare professionals; and to advance education and research into POI and related conditions.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

In carrying out its aims, the charity has had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. This year, Daisy Network provided support through monthly online groups, free counselling, and medical Q&A sessions. We raised awareness of POI through in person events, and campaigns, and continued to offer information and peer support via our website, membership, and regional volunteers.

Additional details of objectives and activities (optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The charity does not make grants or programme-related investments. Its activities are delivered by a team of dedicated volunteers, including trustees, regional networkers, and fundraising coordinators. Volunteers contribute significant time and skills to support the charity's services, events, and awareness-raising activities.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

In 2024, Daisy Network delivered a wide range of support and outreach activities. We hosted Daisy Day 2024, bringing together members, clinicians, and researchers. We launched a leaflet and poster drive to raise awareness of POI across the UK, alongside regular support groups, counselling services, medical Q&As, and lunch and learn sessions.

Beyond direct support, Daisy Network contributed to wider medical progress. We acted as advisors on the new ESHRE guidelines for POI and became a partner in the POISE study, strengthening our role in advancing research and improving care internationally

Section EFinancial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees aim to maintain reserves at a level sufficient to cover at least six months of core operating costs to ensure the charity can continue to provide services in the event of unforeseen financial difficulties. Funds in excess of this level are applied directly towards charitable activities.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

The charity had no funds in deficit during the year.

Further financial review details (optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's principal sources of funds are membership fees, donations, and fundraising activities. Expenditure during the year was focused on delivering support services, including online support groups, counselling provision, and awareness activities such as Daisy Day and outreach campaigns. The trustees do not hold any investments and no ethical investment policy is currently in place.

Section FOther optional information

The charity made a planned deficit during the year, as reserves were used to support counselling services and awareness activities. Trustees are satisfied this was appropriate and sustainable, given the charity's reserves policy. Membership subscriptions remained a reliable income stream and helped maintain core services. The trustees recognise that rising operating costs and limitations in fundraising opportunities present challenges, and continue to explore sustainable income streams. The trustees are seeking further grant opportunities and partnerships to strengthen future financial resilience.

Section GDeclaration
