Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- (1)
To advance education for the benefit of the general public by means of, but not exclusively, the provision or the assistance in the provision of educational activities and facilities, such as schools and provision of scholarships for public benefit;
- (2)
To relieve sickness and to preserve good health among persons in need, by means of, but not exclusively, the provision or assistance in the provision of medical clinics and grants for medicines and medical treatment for the benefit of the said persons;
- (3)
To relieve financial hardship among poor people, victims of natural disasters and other people in financial hardship by means of, but not exclusively, making grants for providing or paying for items, equipment, services and facilities, including the provision of food, clean water and other necessities for the benefit of the said persons.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

This is the first year after the bank account was opened. In this year, the trustees started to raise the charity profile and held a launch event. This helped the charity to gain regular donors and some donations were secured during the year for future charitable projects around education and health. The trustees anticipate delivery of projects to support the objects of the charity in the near future. The trustees have considered the general guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission and has taken due regard of that guidance. The trustees consider that they are satisfied that the charity's activities will benefit the public once the projects have been started.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

This is the first year after the bank account was opened. In this year, the trustees started to raise the charity profile and held a launch event. This helped the charity to gain regular donors and some donations were secured during the year for future charitable projects around education and health. The trustees anticipate delivery of projects to support the objects of the charity in the near future.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity raised £1,725 in donations for the period and had expenditure of £210 during the year. This resulted in a surplus of £1,515 which was held for future charitable expenditure. The charity does not have a reserves policy and all surplus funds will be used for future charitable projects.
