Since receiving charity status in early 2023, Learn With ESS Foundation has been actively building relationships within the local community to identify and support future projects. Although we haven't yet secured external funding, we've prioritized ensuring our policies, plans, and volunteer practices meet the highest standards to facilitate future success. The Foundation's trustees meet regularly to discuss progress and plan for the coming year. Our first year of operations has provided valuable experience and positioned us to pursue new opportunities in the new year.
