Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity’s trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	CIO Foundation We organised a range of impactful fundraising initiatives, including our popular Festive Fairyland event, which brought the community together to raise vital funds for the cause. Alongside this, we also coordinated seasonal donation drives, collecting thoughtful items such as Easter eggs and Christmas gifts to bring joy and comfort to those in the unit during special occasions. Thanks to the generosity of our supporters, we were also able to use the funds raised to purchase Cuski baby nests—essential items that provide comfort and security for newborns, further enhancing the support we offer to families in need. These efforts reflect our commitment to making a meaningful difference through both fundraising and the direct provision of much-needed resources. Constitution

Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Appointed by current trustees

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity’s organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees’ consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

For the public benefit, the relief of need of those parents and families with sick and/or premature babies, within Colchester and throughout the United Kingdom, in particular but not exclusively by the provision of grants, items, services and facilities to neonatal units of hospitals and their patients.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

In accordance with our charitable objects, the charity has carried out the following activities to further our mission and benefit the public:

1. Fundraising Events Organisation of fundraising events such as our Festive Fairyland event, Bingo Nights, Seasonal donation drives and collecting items to be distributed to parents in the NICU department at Easter and Christmas
2. Parent Support: Through our charitable group we provide support for new parents on the challenges of having a baby born either prematurely or requiring support from the NICU unit of the hospital.

These activities are designed to ensure our charity remains focused on its mission of promoting education, health, and welfare, while directly benefitting the public.

Statutory Declaration:

The trustees confirm that they have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit in carrying out the activities described above.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity maintains a reserves policy to ensure it can continue to meet its obligations and operate effectively in the event of unforeseen financial difficulties or fluctuations in income. Our policy is to hold reserves equivalent to 3 months of the charity's annual operating costs. This ensures that we can cover essential costs, and ongoing operational needs, should income fall short.

Details of any funds materially in deficit
