The charity meets regularly for the promotion of physical and spiritual wellbeing of members and our immediate community at large. In the year under review, we've continued to reach out to the community through our Saturdays free coffee mornings. Apart from the members of the community coming in for a free drinks and chats, we also have a qualified counsellor/psychologist on ground who people can confidentially chat with and get signposted to various help and support where needed.

In the year, we've had various programmes for the youths which have been beneficial to their career development plans and promoting their health and wellbeing.

Our woman group has engaged in various programmes aimed at reaching out to our local care homes, in addition to ensuring support for one another which has been helpful in promoting their mental health and emotional wellbeing.

We've continued to invest on our children ministry and this has helped children for a good bond and relationship with their peers and the children's teachers, with a corresponding positive effects in their various homes and childhood development milestones.

We've continued our partnership with other churches around Luton and the local community to send Christmas hampers to the less privileged in the communities. We organise Christmas carol with the local care home in our community as a way of bringing the joy of Christmas to the elderly in the care homes. We also partner with compassion UK and CAP UK to support people through their charities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 October 2024 which are set out on pages 7 to 10.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees of the Charity are responsible for the preparation of accounts. They consider that the audit requirement under section 43 (2) of the Charities Act 1993 does not apply. It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 43 (2) of the 1993 Act.
- Follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners made under section 43 (7) (b) of the 1993 Act.
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission and is in accordance with Regulation of the charity Account 2006, The examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1 Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material aspect, the trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that:
  - Proper accounting records are kept in accordance with section 41 Of the 1993 Act and section 44 (1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006
  - Accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act: or
- 2 To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
