1. Structure, Governance and Management

The Royal Berkshire Squash Rackets Association is a registered charity governed by its constitution. The trustees are responsible for the overall management and control of the charity and meet periodically to review activities, finances, and strategy.

The charity maintains a number of governance policies, including safeguarding, complaints handling, risk management, trustee expenses, and conflicts of interest policies. During the year, safeguarding procedures remained a priority, with appropriate DBS checks obtained for all relevant roles.

Some policies (including financial controls and reserves policy) remain under development and will be reviewed in the forthcoming period.

2. Objectives and Activities

The charity exists to promote and support squash and racket sports within the Royal Berkshire area, including encouraging participation, supporting players, and enabling access to facilities and competitions.
