 - trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The public will be aware of how to apply for the individual grant scheme through local funeral directors and the Laybo's Legacy website.

Each grant application will be independently checked and verified (1 trustee to process/ 1 trustee to verify) before notifying the applicant. The applicant will be notified by email as to whether they are successful. If successful, the funeral director will have indicated on the application that they will have the payment directly sent to them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To provide financial aid to assist families after bereavement from death by suicide, by helping their financial hardship in respect of funeral cost requirements, for the Gainsborough public and surrounding villages.

Our vision is to help all bereaved families living within Gainsborough and the surrounding area who have lost a family member to suicide, receive the financial assistance they need. Making grants available to individuals who are suffering bereavements as a result of suicide.

The public will be made aware of how to apply for individual grant scheme through local funeral directors and the Laybo's Legacy website.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Fund raising events are run by volunteers.

Each fund-raising event not only raises funds for our objectives, but they also raise awareness of suicide.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We have raised funds this year by local authority grants.
Local businesses.
Fund-raising events.
All businesses who kindly donate also promote our charity and awareness of suicide.
All volunteers promote our charity during events and also in the wider public domain.
As well as raising funds to financially help funeral costs to families that have lost a loved one to suicide.
It is also really important that we raise awareness of suicide prevention.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity has enough reserves to fund the next 12 months of activities.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

We have helped families with funeral expenses since starting the charity.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 29/02/2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
