Structure, Governance, and Management

Governing Document: The charity is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), governed by its constitution dated 7 March 2023.

Trustee Recruitment and Appointment: Apart from the first trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of 3 years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. New trustees are recruited based on the skills and experience required to further the charity's objectives and are provided with an induction to their roles and responsibilities.

Objectives and Activities

Charitable Objectives: The objectives of the Al Islam Family Foundation, as stated in its governing document, are: "To further such purposes which are exclusively charitable within the laws of England and Wales as may be determined from time to time by the charity trustees."

Summary of Main Activities in Relation to Objectives: To achieve its objectives, the charity's main activity during the year was the provision of grants and donations to support various charitable causes. Based on financial records, key areas of support included:

- Orphan Support: Funding for orphans in Morocco.
- Community and Faith Projects: Donations towards mosque projects and Quran competitions in Ghana.
- Poverty Relief: Funding for feeding programs in Ghana and Morocco.

- Disaster and Aid Relief: Support for a container shipment to Ghana.

Achievements and Performance

During the year, the charity successfully provided funding to a number of projects in line with its objectives. The trustees are pleased with the performance of these activities and believe they have delivered a positive public benefit.

The Moroccan Orphan project funded three orphans , the number of people assisted by the feeding program was over 200, as well as completion funding for a mosque in Bangladesh.

Financial Review
