Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To better and improve the life of the community and wider world, through offering donations, financial contributions, and grants to relieve poverty, further educational opportunities, solve financial hardship, improve healthcare, advocate religious harmony, and support various established charities and their causes.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The first and most significant project of 2024 was to complete the build of a school , started the year prior, through The Read Foundation (charity no 1160256). This school will provide an education for young girls in Pakistan. Then the charity hosted it's annual open event providing 'Iftar' a meal, in Ramadan, to the community of Palmers Green, London. Over 700 members of the local community, from various backgrounds, were provided a hot meal. Further efforts were made to relieve hunger, and provide necessities through the transfer of donations to various individuals and charities, who were able to carry out charitable activity on instruction and behalf of the trustees. These instances included buying and distributing food, essentials, and medicine, as well as rebuilding of homes. Donations were made towards the renowned British Asian Trust (charity no 1127366) and Edhi Foundation (charity no 1015408) to support the relief of poverty in South Asia. A donation was made to Children's Aid (charity no 1196869) to provide cancer treatment to a young father in Pakistan.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees of The Yass Charitable Trust: Mr Majid Ishaq, Ms Naila Faqir, Mrs Sehar Khan, Mr Aadam Ishaq, Mr Saif Ishaq and Mr Yousaf Ishaq have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	Family members and friends who know the trustees to be involved in charitable activities, have requested to donate money to the trust itself, contributing to funds. Many have also physically assisted in charitable activities, such as volunteering during food distribution. This has occurred at community events where all are involved. Volunteers have purchased food goods and essentials on behalf of the charity, and then distributed them amongst communities who need it most, both in an outside the UK, increasing the scope of where charitable funds reach.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.

Para 1.20

Continuing from last years largest achievement, the charity completed building a school in Pakistan via The Read Foundation. An 8,847sqft building, with 16 classrooms is now complete in Sidhwan, Pakistan. The school is a female only institute and will bring education to many young girls who would else have been deprived of the opportunity of learning. The trustees hope that this will be a continuous charity, that will not only reap benefits now, in providing an invaluable education to children, but also have a positive effect on the growth of opportunities in the future for these children and their wider communities. As of the year end 2024, the construction of the school has been completed, and the final months of the year have involved staff recruitment. Opening of the school is scheduled in January 2025, with classes beginning in February 2025.

What is now an annual event for the charity, 'Iftar for the Community' took place in March during Ramadan. The open event allowed over 700 people from the local and surrounding areas of Palmers Green to break fast and enjoy a hot and nutritious meal together. The meal, as always, was open to all not just those fasting. Using the setting of Palmers Green Mosque, allowed a strong community feel, and an evening of togetherness and positivity.

Following the above event, the trustees once again agreed to provide meals, food staples, essentials, and medicine to those who could otherwise not afford it, not only in the UK, but across the world, particularly in poverty-stricken areas. Funds were transferred to volunteers on the ground in these areas and bought what was most needed amongst the most vulnerable, and distributed fairly. Donations were given to specific projects in South East Asia to help the relief of poverty. Larger donations were made to contribute to the reconstruction of a poor family's home in India, and the cancer treatment of a young father in Pakistan.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2024

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached*

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
--	----------------	--

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.

Para 1.20

During the charity's first project, providing meals to the community of Palmers Green, London through hosting an 'Iftar' event, the local community were able to come together in There was a social gathering of over 600 people from the local and surrounding areas, and those who did not have access to daily hot meals were able to eat a well-balanced meal and be satisfied. The event was open to all, in the hope that not only those fasting, but those who needed a meal would attend. The event not only provided a nutritious hot meal to 100s of individuals, but allowed for an enjoyable social evening of conversation, positivity, and reflection.

Following the above event, the trustees agreed to provide meals, food staples, essentials, and medicine to those who could otherwise not afford it, not only in the UK, but across the world, particularly in poverty-stricken areas. Funds were transferred to volunteers on the ground in these areas, and bought what was most needed amongst the most vulnerable, and distributed fairly.

Donations were made to Southgate Mosque and Community Centre, to help complete the purchase, build and renovation of a new emerging community hub in North London. The community centre aims to improve the lives of all in the surrounding area, by serving as a safe space that will provide various social events, as well as classes and activities for all people of all ages.

The charity's largest achievement was committing to building a school in Pakistan via The Read Foundation. An 8,847sqft building, with 16 classrooms is now almost complete in Sidhwan, Pakistan. The school will be a female only institute and bring education to many young girls who would else have been deprived of the opportunity of learning. The trustees hope that this will be a continuous charity, that will not only reap benefits now, in providing an invaluable education to children, but also have a positive effect on the growth of opportunities in the future for these children and their wider communities. As of the year end 2023, much of the building work for the school has been completed, including the excavation of land, build of foundations, and all the

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees

The Yass Charitable Trust

On accounts for the year ended

2023

Charity no
(if any)

1202245

Set out on pages

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 / 12 / 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

The charity's gross income exceeded £25,000.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
