ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

I am pleased to report that our membership numbers have increase in the last year, which I think is attributable to our use of various social media platforms. We have more followers on our social media than ever before and we are highlighting the conference, webinars and journals, in order to attract new members.

We want to further expand our membership, and as such, we have, like last year, provided a year's membership as part of the Conference admission fee to non-members. We have successfully sought sponsorship from pharmaceutical companies, which enables us to provide the conference free of charge to our members.

I continue to be hugely thankful to Harnek Chera our Honorary Treasurer; Harnek utilises all his business knowledge and has made savings and gathered financial insights to benefit BGTHA.

After last year's conference Ivan Aloysuis joined the Executive Committee. Jane Wilson-Howarth has taken on the role of Acting Editor of the journal, for which I am eternally grateful. Jane brings a wealth of writing experience to the role.

Presently our committee comprises three doctors, two nurses and four pharmacists. There are three vacancies in the Executive Committee so there are opportunities to bring in fresh ideas and passion to the Executive Committee. Please contact me, or any of the Committee should you wish to nominate yourself.

As always, my heartfelt thanks to all on the BGTHA Executive Committee for their hard work throughout this year. I must also thank our outstanding President George Kassianos, CBE, for his long-standing and continued contributions to BGTHA. It truly has been a pleasure to work with you all toward our common goal of providing education to travel and global health practitioners.

FUTURE PLANS

We continue to present the electronic version of the Travelwise Journal, as an educational publication with relevant material to practitioners who provide, or have an interest in, any type of Travel or Global Health service. Online publication has resulted in huge cost savings but also enables us to present articles in a timelier fashion.

As always, we are seeking new authors so please let us know if you would like to write for us and we can forward you a copy of the author guidelines.

Dr Graham Fry write monthly newsletters of interesting snippets that are uploaded to the members area on the website. These are just enough to stimulate some thought and allow members the opportunity to explore in more depth items that interest them.

3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

CHAIR'S REPORT for the period 20 March 2023 to 31 March 2024

I am pleased to report that our membership numbers have remained constant in the last year. We want to further expand our membership, and as such, we have, like last year, provided a year's membership as part of the Conference admission fee to non-members. We have successfully sought sponsorship from pharmaceutical companies, which enables us to provide the conference free of charge to our members.

I am hugely thankful to Hamek Chera who has continued in the position of Honorary Treasurer; Hamek utilises a huge business acumen to the position, which has greatly streamlined our financial processes.

Sadly Dr Jim Bond and Laura Oakley both resigned from the committee in the summer and I am grateful for the work they did during their time on the committee. We have recently welcomed two nurses on to the committee, Danielle Anderson and Yvonne Gibney and I am sure they will raise our profile among their nursing colleagues.

Presently our committee comprises two doctors, three nurses and four pharmacists. There are three vacancies in the Executive Committee so there are opportunities to bring in fresh ideas and passion to the Executive Committee. Please contact me, or any of the Committee should you wish to nominate yourself.

We have continued to present the electronic version of the Travelwise Journal, as an educational publication with relevant material to practitioners who provide, or have an interest in, any type of Travel or Global Health service. Our editorial team are Jane Wilson-Howarth and Jan Jones. I am so grateful for the dedication of this dynamic duo who contribute hours of work to produce an excellent journal.

Last year we changed how we publish articles, meaning we get them to members in a more timely manner. Can I take this opportunity to invite members to contribute to the Journal, particularly if you have research you would like to share. Jan and Jane can be contacted by emailing editor@bgtha.org and we can provide you with our author guidelines.

Dr Graham Fry continues to produce monthly newsletters of interesting snippets that are uploaded to the members area on the website. These are just enough to stimulate some thought and allow members the opportunity to explore in more depth items that interest them.

We continue to support the endeavours of The Faculty of Travel Medicine, and they do likewise for our organisation. I have met with their new Dean, Dr David Ross, and we will continue to explore our joint goals of working together.

As always, my heartfelt thanks to all on the BGTHA Executive Committee for their hard work throughout this year. I must also thank our outstanding President George Kassianos, OBE, for his long-standing and continued contributions to BGTHA. It truly has been a pleasure to work with you all toward our common goal of providing education to travel and global health practitioners.
