Objectives and Activities

|  | SORP reference     |   |
|--|--------------------|---|
| Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document  | Para 1.17          | The Audiom Project is dedicated to supporting students studying in the field of audiology in either a technological or healthcare setting. We aim to support students in need of financial aid to achieve their goals by providing small to medium sized grants. Our goal is to help advance innovation in the audiology industry, and inspire the next generation of healthcare professionals   |
| Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts. | Para 1.17 and 1.19 | During the year, The Audiom Project liaised with students to understand their needs and the challenges they face in accessing financial and professional support. This feedback helped us refine our grant application process to better align with their requirements and ensure our support has the greatest impact, to improve accessibility, we collaborated with a website developer to modify our online platform. The website once launched will feature an interactive grant application process and additional resources to guide students in their journey. These efforts reflect our ongoing commitment to empowering the next generation of audiology professionals and fostering innovation in the field. |
| Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit   | Para 1.18          | The Trustees have regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission in regard to public benefit and clearly our work in building the foundation to support students pursuing careers in audiology demonstrates this. We have not yet made any grants in this period, our efforts have focused on understanding students' needs, developing accessible application processes, and creating the infrastructure necessary to ensure future support is impactful and aligned with our charitable aims.   |

Financial Review

|--|-----------|--|
| Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period              | Para 1.21 | During this period, The Audiom Project had limited resources to actively attract donors. As a result, we have NIL income for this period. Our focus during this time has been on understanding the needs of students and working closely with a website developer to create an accessible and user-friendly online platform. This platform will serve as the primary means for students to apply for grants and access resources. These preparatory efforts are essential to ensuring the success of our future activities and the effective delivery of support to our beneficiaries. |
| Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held   | Para 1.22 | No reserves held  |
| Amount of reserves held  | Para 1.22 | Nil   |
| Reasons for holding zero reserves  | Para 1.22 | The charity holds zero reserves as roles are filled by unpaid volunteers, and we incur no fixed costs such as rent or utilities, with all operations conducted virtually.  |
| Details of fund materially in deficit  | Para 1.24 | None  |
| Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern | Para 1.23 | There are no significant uncertainties regarding the charity's ability to continue as a going concern. Audiom Project operates with unpaid volunteers, and as we have no paid staff or fixed overhead costs, such as rent or utilities, our operations are highly flexible and cost-effective. This ensures that the charity can continue its work even with limited financial resources, as we are able to adapt to circumstances and focus on the long-term development of our programs.   |

Objectives and Activities

|  | SORP reference     |  |
|--|--------------------|--|
| Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document  | Para 1.17          | The Audiom Project is dedicated to supporting students studying in the field of audiology in either a technological or healthcare setting. We aim to support students in need of financial aid to achieve their goals by providing small to medium sized grants. Our goal is to help advance innovation in the audiology industry, and inspire the next generation of healthcare professionals  |
| Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts. | Para 1.17 and 1.19 | During the year, The Audiom Project liaised with students to understand their needs and the challenges they face in accessing financial and professional support. This feedback helped us refine our grant application process to better align with their requirements and ensure our support has the greatest impact, to improve accessibility, we collaborated with a website developer to start working our online platform. The website once launched will feature an interactive grant application process and additional resources to guide students in their journey. These efforts reflect our ongoing commitment to empowering the next generation of audiology professionals and fostering innovation in the field. |
| Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit   | Para 1.18          | The Trustees have regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission in regard to public benefit and clearly our work in building the foundation to support students pursuing careers in audiology demonstrates this. We have not yet made any grants in this period, our efforts have focused on understanding students' needs, developing accessible application processes, and creating the infrastructure necessary to ensure future support is impactful and aligned with our charitable aims.  |

Financial Review

|--|-----------|--|
| Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period              | Para 1.21 | During this period, The Audiom Project had limited resources to actively attract donors. As a result, we have NIL income for this period. Our focus during this time has been on understanding the needs of students and working closely with a website developer to create an accessible and user-friendly online platform. This platform will serve as the primary means for students to apply for grants and access resources. These preparatory efforts are essential to ensuring the success of our future activities and the effective delivery of support to our beneficiaries. |
| Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held   | Para 1.22 | No reserves held  |
| Amount of reserves held  | Para 1.22 | Nil   |
| Reasons for holding zero reserves  | Para 1.22 | The charity holds zero reserves as roles are filled by unpaid volunteers, and we incur no fixed costs such as rent or utilities, with all operations conducted virtually.   |
| Details of fund materially in deficit  | Para 1.24 | None  |
| Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern | Para 1.23 | There are no significant uncertainties regarding the charity's ability to continue as a going concern. Audiom Project operates with unpaid volunteers, and as we have no paid staff or fixed overhead costs, such as rent or utilities, our operations are highly flexible and cost-effective. This ensures that the charity can continue its work even with limited financial resources, as we are able to adapt to circumstances and focus on the long-term development of our programs.  |
