

Trustees' Annual Report and Accounts Statement

For the financial period ending 31.12.23

During our first financial year, Yeshua's Heart did not conduct any activities or generate any income or expenditure. As a result, there are no financial transactions or activities to report for this period.

The trustees remain committed to advancing the charity's objectives and look forward to launching activities in the upcoming financial year.