I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity (the CIO) for the year ended 31 / 03 /2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the CIO, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the CIO's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are:

1. 'To relieve sickness and preserve and protect the health of child patients in Birmingham Children's Hospital (and such other hospitals or medical practices as the Charity Trustees may determine from time to time) in particular, but not exclusively, by assisting with the provision of facilities, support services and equipment not normally provided by statutory authorities.'

2. 'To relieve the needs of parents, families and friends of children with life threatening or life changing conditions or suffering from grief and bereavement following the loss of a child, in particular but not exclusively through:
 - a. Assisting in the provision of essential practical items during a hospital stay;
 - b. Assisting in the creation of memories of the child with hand and foot impressions.'
3. 'To advance the education of the public in relation to the experience of children with life threatening or life changing conditions, end of life care, child bereavement and the emotional, psychological and physical effects thereof.'

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Charity raises money via the running of events, receiving funds through ticket sales, sponsorship and other donations.

The funds raised from such events are used to carry out its objects as detailed above.

The trustees have paid due regard to the commission's public benefit guidance when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance is relevant.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.
