Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The Maddie and Noah Foundation has achieved significant milestones this year. Since February, the foundation has provided essential baby items to 36 families through its baby bank service. They have supported the health and well-being of 250 + families in neonatal care by supplying fresh food, snacks, and refreshments for family rooms. The foundation offers a breast pump loan service to assist new mothers and has established a comprehensive four-level peer support program, including telephone, face-to-face, home help, and external referral support. Additionally, care packages have been provided to babies in the children's services care system. The foundation is also preparing to launch a development program to support babies' growth and development while in neonatal care.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At the end of this reporting period, the Maddie and Noah Foundation is in a stable financial position. We currently have a small positive balance of £96 in our account, having maintained a financial surplus with more income than expenditure throughout the year. We have no outstanding liabilities or financial obligations, and all necessary purchases for our services have been completed. We are also awaiting additional donations, which will further support the foundation's activities in the coming months.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Non held
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	zero
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	At present, The Maddie and Noah Foundation does not hold any financial reserves. As a charity, we operate entirely free of charge, relying on the generosity of our community for donations of items, goods, and refreshments, or using donated funds to meet our needs. Our operational model is designed to minimise costs, with no paid staff and services provided by volunteers. Given our current financial structure and the ongoing support from donors, we have not found it necessary to hold reserves at this time. However, we will continue to assess our financial position to ensure sustainability in the future.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	At present, The Maddie and Noah Foundation does not hold any financial reserves. As a charity, we operate entirely free of charge, relying on the generosity of our community for donations of items, goods, and refreshments, or using donated funds to meet our needs. Our operational model is designed to minimize costs, with no paid staff and services provided by volunteers. Given our current financial structure and the ongoing support from donors, we have not found it necessary to hold reserves at this time. However, we will continue to assess our financial position to ensure sustainability in the future.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	There are no uncertainties regarding The Maddie and Noah Foundation continuing as a going concern. We are confident in our ability to sustain our operations and continue providing essential services to families. Our dedicated team and the ongoing support from our community through donations ensure we can keep making a positive impact. We remain fully committed to our mission and have no concerns about the charity's future viability.
