Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document.	Para 1.17	The objects of the CIO are, for the public benefit, the advancement of the Christian faith in accordance with the statement of faith in Appendix 1.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The trustees are pursuing a transfer of the premises of the Christian Centre from its historic trust into the CIO. This process has not yet been resolved. The bank account has also remained within the historic trust, meaning that the CIO has not yet had any income or expenses. Between 12 April 2023 and 31 March 2024 the Christian Centre was used by a pre-school, by a Scout pack and for parade services and other occasional services of public Christian worship. The trustees have been in discussion with interested parties regarding the future of the Christian Centre building.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.	Para 1.18	The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The trustees are pursuing a transfer of the premises of the Christian Centre from its historic trust into the CIO. This process has not yet been resolved. The bank account has also remained within the historic trust, meaning that the CIO has not yet had any income or expenses. Between 12 April 2023 and 31 March 2024 the Christian Centre was used by a pre-school, by a Scout pack and for parade services and other occasional services of public Christian worship. We believe these activities have served to advance the Christian faith and have been of benefit to the local community. The hosted pre-school is regarded as an important local service by the local authority. The trustees have been in discussion with interested parties regarding the future of the Christian Centre building.
