Accounts

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 12.04.2024 TO 11.04.2025

Charity name: BUDE CANCER SUPPORT (BCS)

Charity registration number: 1202697

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To promote and protect the physical and mental health of people living with cancer, their carers and families throughout Bude-Stratton through the provision of support, education, information and practical advice.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	BCS is a peer support group for anyone affected by Cancer (inc. those living with or recovering from the disease, their families, friends and carers) living in or visiting the Bude-Stratton area. It does this by providing twice monthly, safe space, café events together with a variety of workshops and restorative therapies to promote both physical and mental health. We also provide advice and signpost attendees to other services and support. All BCS services are provided free of charge to users
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees and committee of Bude Cancer Support are aware of and have complied fully with all guidance provided by the Charity Commission regarding their activities and public benefit and are wholly mindful of the guidance when planning events.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Bude Cancer Support was founded in 2022 to provide much needed support to people affected in any way by cancer living in or visiting the Bude-Stratton area. Since then approximately 450 people have visited the cafes and found a safe place to connect with others who are in a similar position and benefit both from peer support and the advice and guidance available. Many of them have also attended the group's workshops and/or therapies which provide opportunities to explore new activities and are planned to improve mental and physical wellbeing. All of the workshops/therapies are free of charge to attendees and are run in conjunction with other local charities and businesses. BCS are the only provider of these services on a free to beneficiary basis in the area.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	BCS has ended its financial year in a strong financial position with income over the year totalling £8,143.00 and a year end closing balance of £9,222.00. This will enable the group to continue providing its services, in difficult economic times, for the next financial year.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Reserves are held only in order to provide financial stability and continuity of service delivery.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	Year end closing balance £9,222.00
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	N/A
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	N/A
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	N/A

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	BCS is entirely funded by donations (£6,113), grants (£1,500) and fundraising activities including an annual collection at a local supermarket (£530).
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	N/A
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	BCS has a healthy bank balance and a strong volunteer base going in to the next financial year (2025/2026) so remains in a good position to continue delivering its services for, at least, the next 12 months.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	'Association' Model Constitution
How is the charity constituted? (e.g unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	C.I.O.
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	The BCS constitution states that there must be a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 6 trustees (there are currently 3). At each A.G.M. of committee members the longest serving trustee resigns, in sequence, and new trustees are appointed either by the members at the A.G.M. or by the other trustees and/or members at any other time where deemed necessary.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees	Para 1.51	New trustees are provided with and encouraged to read the government 'Welcome Pack'.
The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51	BCS currently has 3 trustees and a committee of 8 members (volunteers) who manage and plan the organisation and its activities.
Relationship with any related parties	Para 1.51	BCS began with a start-up grant from MacMillan Cancer Support and maintains a link with the organisation. Its cafés are held in one of the local council (Bude-Stratton Town Council) premises and wherever possible BCS works with other local charities and businesses to provide the workshops and therapies organised for its service users.
