POLLARDS HILL BAPTIST CHURCH

Report of the Managing Trustees for the year ended 31 March 2025

The managing trustees present their report and financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2025.

Constitution

PHBC constitution adopted on 29th June 2014 was amended on 26th February 2023.

As the church's annual income has exceeded £100,000, the church applied and is in the final stages of registering as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO).

Purpose

The principal purpose of Pollards Hill Baptist Church is the advancement of the Christian faith according to the principles of the Baptist denomination. The church may also advance education and carry out other charitable purposes in the United Kingdom and/or other parts of the world.

Pollards Hill Baptist Church is a member of The Baptist Union of Great Britain and the London Baptist Association (London Baptists as of September 2020).

As member of The Baptist Union of Great Britain, the church subscribes to the Union's Declaration of Principle:

- That our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, God manifest in the flesh, is the sole and absolute authority in all matters pertaining to faith and practice, as revealed in the Holy Scriptures, and that each church has liberty, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, to interpret and administer His laws.
- That Christian Baptism is the immersion in water in the name of the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit, of those who have professed repentance towards God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ who died for our sins according to the Scriptures, was buried and rose again on the third day.
- That it is the duty of each disciple to bear personal witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ, and to take part in the evangelisation of the world.

Pollards Hill Baptist Church is an 'open membership' church, so that persons seeking membership who have not been baptised in the manner described in the Union's Declaration of Principle may at the discretion of the church members' meeting be accepted for full membership based on their own public profession of faith.

Mrs Bajoy Martin – Deacon of Worship

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

Charity law requires the Charity Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of Pollards Hill Baptist Church at the year-end and of its incoming resources and resources expended during that year. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to –

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going-concern basis.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of Pollards Hill Baptist Church and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011 and the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2005. The managing trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of Pollards Hill Baptist Church and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud or other irregularities.

Bankers

National Westminster Bank PLC, Croydon High Street, 1 High Street Croydon, CR9 1PD.

Reserves policy

The Managing Trustees accept their responsibility to keep the membership apprised of the church's financial status on a regular basis, recognising that their financial support on a voluntary basis needs to be maintained.

Any liquid funds of the church are all held on accounts with bankers and other financial institutions requiring minimal notice for withdrawals. The church does not invest in securities.

Risk policy

The Managing Trustees are aware of the need to implement a risk management strategy comprising –

- an annual review of risks;
- establishment and review of systems and procedures to mitigate those risks; and
- establishment and review of procedures to minimise the potential impact should any of those risks materialise.

Review of the year

Minister: Rev Deji Ayorinde

Our motto verse, Romans 12:12, called for us to be joyful in hope, patient in affliction and faithful in prayer and as I reflect on the year we have had, I have come to a clearer understanding of why the Lord led us to hold that as our focus.

Having begun in late 2022, the process of first registering as a charity and then transferring assets and contracts from the former unincorporated association to the newly registered CIO has now been completed and from 1st April 2025, we will begin trading under the new name, Pollards Hill Baptist Church CIO. This report marks a transition point in the 85-year history of the church, and it is more than a privilege and honour that the Lord has chosen us to facilitate this. I am particularly grateful to Bajoy Martin for her incredible sacrifice and efforts, taking the lead in seeing that process through from beginning to end.

Pressing into the new year, we continue to declare that He is our strength, our song and salvation, and we look forward to newer and greater testimonies of His goodness in us and through us to the wider community of Pollards Hill.

Independent Examiner

As there are no financial transactions to report, accounts have not been prepared, and an independent examiner has not been appointed.

Conclusion

This report has been prepared in cooperation with the Managing Trustees who, on15/11/2025....., approved the same and authorised the Secretary to sign it on their behalf.

Review of the year

Minister: Rev Deji Ayorinde

Every new year comes with its fair share of new hope, new expectation, new resolutions and decisions. Yet, at the same time, we cannot help but look back at where we are coming from. Through our motto verse for 2023 we committed to be ever determined, never deterred and as we keep our eyes always on the Lord, with Him at our right hand, we will not be shaken (Psalm 16:8), and there was a stark manifestation of that verse in the life of the church - body, soul and spirit.

On 14th April 2023 we successfully registered as a charitable incorporated organisation (CIO) registration number 1202717. The process of asset transfer has begun, and we are hopeful that it will be completed before April 2024 in order that we can begin trading with that name in the new reporting year. As such, Pollards Hill Baptist Church CIO has remained a shell organisation, and we have continued to trade as Pollards Hill Baptist Church. This means that we have zero financing to declare for this period.

Through the ebb and flow of responding to God's call to the people of Pollards Hill, we have continued to lean on God's grace.

As we journey forward in God's mission for us to our community, let us remain in the continuity of our motto verse for 2024, remaining joyful in hope, patient in affliction and faithful in prayer.

Independent Examiner

As there are no financial transactions to report, accounts have not been prepared, and an independent examiner has not been appointed.

Conclusion

This report has been prepared in cooperation with the Managing Trustees who, on 29.01.2025, approved the same and authorised the Secretary to sign it on their behalf.

8. "Permanent" Loan from the LBA John Bradford Trust

This loan, which was originally advanced to the Church in 1955 from the LBA Turtle Trust, is interest free and is repayable only in the event of the closure of the Church, or should the Church cease to be in membership of the London Baptist Association.

In 2015 the LBA Turtle Trust has been merged into the LBA John Bradford Trust with similar aims and objectives.

Early voluntary repayment of the loan by the Church would be possible which, in turn, would enable to the London Baptist Association to recirculate the funds to other churches which may be in need of financial assistance.
