	SORP reference
Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	Whilst the charity does not see grant making as a major part of its work, but may make small grants to support the provision of services, or access to services by individuals, which it does not itself provide and which would not otherwise be freely available. The charity has a robust grant making policy, please see governing documents.

		Funding is only considered, for activities that are exclusively charitable and fall within the charity's objects. Grants will be made based on the funding available and solely on merit, by assessing applications against the funding priorities in the policy.
Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	That charity's policy on social investments is that the sole purpose of the utilisation of Charity's financial resources for investments must be focused on furthering the charity's aims and objectives to deliver measurable mental health awareness projects and which have apposite social impact, while ensuring responsible stewardship of funds.
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	Volunteers contribute to deliver psychoeducation workshops and activity classes. Volunteers were engaged in the charity's activities based on their expertise where they were either experts in mental health topic, or are trained and fully assessed such that their contribution aligns with the needs, activities and operations of the charity's objectives in line with governing documents. Engagement is voluntary based and is not permanent/ or formal employment, but activity based. Remuneration of costs such as transport fare which volunteers may incur in engaging with the charity's activities can be reimbursed based on the funding available and allocated to each activity.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity has managed to deliver 12 online and face to face workshops, equipping attendees with self-help strategies and techniques to manage stress, anxiety, worry, low mood, and sleep hygiene. The average number of Attendees was 25 people per session. The attendees feedback post the workshops was that they noticed better capacity to tolerate uncertainty, and manage stress better, anxiety, worry and low mood better, noticing an improvement in mood and motivation , and engagement in pleasurable, social and relational activities.

		Other attendees reported that they found the workshops beneficial, particularly that they felt equipped with practical strategies which they were implementing. Further reported benefit for wider society included improved productivity, improved sleep, reduced reliance on mainstream NHS health services as before for stress related symptoms, and reduced sick leave days from work.
