Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	<ul style="list-style-type: none">◆ To advance the education of medical and allied healthcare professionals in India and Nepal through the delivery of a structured training programme that has been successfully trialed in several centres across both countries.◆ To advance healthcare and save lives by strengthening disaster medicine disciplines that support the full disaster management cycle, particularly through clinical capacity-building initiatives focused on preparedness and response in low- and middle-income countries.◆ To relieve need, debility, and hardship caused by natural or man-made disasters, by providing medical aid and rehabilitation support to affected populations.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Advancing the Education of Health and Care Professionals in India and Nepal Saving Lives International (SLI) continued to expand disaster medicine and Pre-Hospital Trauma Care (PHTC) education and its role in Disasters across India and Nepal through provider training, instructor development, curriculum collaboration, and institutional partnerships. Additional work included further development of Disaster Medicine training curriculum for Low- & Middle-Income Countries (LMICs) through consultations with other medical professionals with significant experience in this field. Key activities during the year included: <ul style="list-style-type: none">◆ Delivery of PHTC Provider and Disaster Medicine courses in Chennai, India, including instructor-led and supervised provider programmes.

- ◆ Training and mentoring of new instructors to strengthen local faculty capability and reduce dependence on UK-based trainers.
- ◆ Completion of the first independently delivered PHTC provider course from SRIHER, in Chennai by Indian faculty accredited through the Faculty of Pre-Hospital Care (FPHC), Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh.
- ◆ Conducting a structured disaster preparedness survey and gap analysis among General Practitioners in Nepal to identify training priorities including trauma care, mass-casualty triage, leadership, coordination, and infectious disease response.
- ◆ Holding strategic curriculum and faculty development discussions with the General Practice & Emergency Medicine Association of Nepal (GPEMAN), Kathmandu Medical College, Janaki Medical College, and other academic institutions.
- ◆ Signing a Memorandum of Understanding with GPEMAN to support disaster medicine education and workforce development in Nepal.
- ◆ Signing a Memorandum of Understanding with the Worshipful Society of Apothecaries of London, Faculty of Catastrophe & Conflict Medicine, to collaboratively develop international Disaster Medicine educational programmes.
- ◆ Expansion of SLI's international advisory and faculty network through new collaborations with global disaster medicine experts.

Advancing Health and Saving Lives through Disaster Medicine

SLI strengthened regional and international collaboration to improve disaster preparedness and emergency response capability.

Activities included:

- ◆ Delivery of disaster medicine workshops and conference presentations in Nepal involving UK and Nepalese faculty.
- ◆ Engagement with the Ministry of Health in Nepal and senior healthcare leaders to support future disaster medicine training development.
- ◆ Discussion meetings for collaboration opportunities with the Nepal Academy of Medical Sciences (NAMS).

- ◆ Participation in the World Association for Disaster and Emergency Medicine (WADEM) Conference, including chairing sessions and presenting academic papers relating to disaster medicine development in Nepal.
- ◆ Further development of 'train the trainer' for approved Disaster Medicine Modular Course with SRIHER-Chennai team.
- ◆ Workshop and consultations with Heads and staff of 3 Pharmacy Colleges in Pune for developing role of Pharma professionals in disasters.

Relieving Hardship and Need Arising from Disasters

SLI's educational activities aimed to improve the emergency preparedness and response capability of healthcare professionals working in disaster-prone regions. By strengthening trauma care and disaster response skills among clinicians, the charity contributed to improved healthcare resilience and preparedness for communities vulnerable to natural disasters, major incidents, and humanitarian emergencies.

Organisational Development and Governance

During the year, Saving Lives International continued to strengthen its organisational development through expansion of international partnerships, educational collaboration, faculty development, and governance oversight.

Key developments included:

- ◆ Strengthening collaboration with the Worshipful Society of Apothecaries of London, Faculty of Catastrophe & Conflict Medicine, to support development of international Disaster Medicine education programmes.
- ◆ Establishing and developing partnerships with the General Practice & Emergency Medicine Association of Nepal (GPEMAN), academic institutions, and healthcare leaders in India and Nepal.
- ◆ Expanding international engagement through participation in the WADEM Conference, diplomatic meetings, and collaboration with disaster medicine specialists and academic institutions.
- ◆ Supporting local faculty development and transition towards independent regional delivery of Pre-Hospital Trauma Care training programmes.
- ◆ Undertaking an annual governance review which confirmed that the charity's

		governance policies, financial oversight arrangements, and operational procedures were effective, with no significant concerns identified and no major governance changes required. Across the reporting period, SLI trained a cumulative total of 103 provider-level clinicians and 18 instructors in Pre-Hospital Trauma Care in Disasters and Mass Casualty Incidents, demonstrating continued growth in workforce capacity, regional resilience, and sustainable educational delivery.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm that they have had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when exercising their duties and in planning, delivering, and reviewing the charity's activities throughout the year. The charity's work in advancing disaster medicine education and emergency preparedness in low- and middle-income countries, together with its contribution to disaster response capacity and humanitarian support, demonstrates clear public benefit in furtherance of the charitable purposes of Saving Lives International.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Saving Lives International (SLI) achieved significant progress during the year in expanding disaster medicine education, strengthening healthcare workforce capacity, and supporting sustainable emergency preparedness initiatives across South Asia. Major achievements included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Successful delivery of multiple Pre-Hospital Trauma Care (PHTC) and Disaster Medicine training programmes in India and Nepal. ◆ Development of new instructors and local faculty capability, reducing reliance on UK-based trainers and strengthening regional educational sustainability. ◆ Completion of the first independently delivered PHTC provider course in Chennai by Indian faculty accredited through the Faculty of Pre-Hospital Care, Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh,

		representing a major milestone in local ownership and long-term programme sustainability. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Strengthening of international academic partnerships through formal agreements with recognised medical institutions and professional bodies. ◆ Enhanced engagement with ministries of health, universities, healthcare leaders, and diplomatic representatives to support future disaster preparedness and emergency medicine initiatives. ◆ Presentation of academic research and disaster medicine papers at the World Association for Disaster and Emergency Medicine (WADEM) Conference, contributing to international knowledge sharing and professional collaboration in disaster medicine. The charity's work identified gaps in preparedness and clinical capacity and capabilities of healthcare professionals working in disaster-prone regions. Beneficiaries gained practical competencies in trauma care, mass-casualty triage, leadership, coordination, and emergency response, contributing to stronger local healthcare systems and improved readiness for disasters and major incidents. SLI also strengthened organisational governance during the year through annual governance review processes and continued oversight arrangements, supporting transparency, accountability, and effective stewardship of charitable resources. Wider Benefit to Society The activities of SLI also delivered wider public benefit by supporting the development of sustainable disaster preparedness capacity within pilot countries – Nepal & India. By strengthening healthcare workforce skills, supporting local instructor development, and promoting collaboration between healthcare institutions and emergency response organisations, the charity contributed to improved resilience of health systems and communities vulnerable to natural disasters, humanitarian emergencies, and mass-casualty incidents. The development

Notes for Trustees

1. Background and Formation

- ◆ Saving Lives International (SLI) originated as a humanitarian initiative under the Rotary Club of Birmingham, rooted in disaster relief efforts led by Dr Peter (Pankaj) Patel.
- ◆ As the scope and complexity of the programme expanded, it became clear that the governance requirements exceeded the capacity of the Rotary Club's trustees.
- ◆ With mutual agreement, the Rotary Club supported the formation of Saving Lives International CIO as an independent charity, to be led by professionals in global health, medicine, and disaster response.
- ◆ Saving Lives International CIO was officially registered with the Charity Commission for England and Wales on 4th May 2023.

2. Banking and Financial Reporting Period
