EDUCATE NOT MUTILATE CIO

England & Wales - Charity number 1203073

Accounts

Educate Not Mutilate (CIO) Trustees' Annual Report and Accounts

For the period 1 May 2024 – 30 April 2025

Charity name: Educate Not Mutilate
(CIO) Charity registration number: 1203073

Objectives and Activities

To promote, preserve and protect the physical and mental health of women and girls in particular, but not exclusively, by tackling the gender-based violence and health inequality that is rooted in female genital mutilation, breast ironing and other forms of gender-based violence through educational workshops and otherwise advancing education and raising awareness of the issues among school students, teachers, health professionals and the wider public.

The trustees confirm that they have considered and adhered to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission regarding public benefit while carrying out their duties and in making decisions for the charity

Achievements and Performance

During this period, we successfully delivered 64 educational workshops to over 5,500 people. This included reaching over 3,000 secondary school students, almost 400 teachers, 800 professionals involved in safeguarding and 1, adults working in healthcare environments.

Financial Review

For the period ending 30th April 2025, the charity recorded total receipts of £74,618, comprised of £36,097 in unrestricted funds and £38,522 in restricted funds. No endowment funds were received during this period.

The majority of income was derived from grants from charitable trusts and foundations, reflecting strong support for the charity's mission and objectives.

The trustees have adopted a policy of building reserves to ensure financial stability and support the sustainability of the charity's activities. As this is our second year of operation, we have built up £29,575 of reserves which are from unrestricted funding and donations. These reserves will ensure the charity's operational resilience over the coming financial periods and will enable the charity to address any future financial uncertainties.

There are no funds currently in deficit, and the charity faces no uncertainties about continuing as a going concern. The trustees are confident that the charity is in a stable financial position and can continue to meet its objectives effectively.

For the year ahead, the charity aims to increase revenue raised through workshop fees and donations from attendees, while continuing to raise funds from grants to support its mission and activities.

Structure, Governance and Management

The charity is governed by a Constitution adopted on 15 May 2023, the date of its formal registration. The charity is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), providing it with its own legal identity and limited liability for trustees.

Trustees are appointed in line with the procedures outlined in the Constitution, either through election or by resolution of the existing trustees.

Responsibilities and basis of report

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/04/2025.

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Educate Not Mutilate (CIO) Trustees' Annual Report and Accounts

For the period 15 May 2023 – 1 April 2024

Charity name: Educate Not Mutilate (CIO)
Charity registration number: 1203073

Objectives and Activities

To promote, preserve and protect the physical and mental health of women and girls in particular, but not exclusively, by tackling the gender-based violence and health inequality that is rooted in female genital mutilation, breast ironing and other forms of gender-based violence through educational workshops and otherwise advancing education and raising awareness of the issues among school students, teachers, health professionals and the wider public.

The trustees confirm that they have considered and adhered to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission regarding public benefit while carrying out their duties and in making decisions for the charity

Achievements and Performance

During this period we successfully delivered 81 educational workshops to over 9,000 people. This included reaching almost 4,000 secondary school students, over 900 teachers, 3,500 professionals involved in safeguarding and 760 adults working in healthcare environments.

Financial Review

For the period ending 30th April 2024, the charity recorded total receipts of £28,369, comprised of £18,369 in unrestricted funds and £10,000 in restricted funds. No endowment funds were received during this period.

The majority of income was derived from donations and fundraising activities, reflecting strong initial support for the charity's mission and objectives.

The trustees have adopted a policy of building reserves to ensure financial stability and support the sustainability of the charity's activities. As this is our first year of operation, no reserves have been established yet; however, it is our intention to gradually develop reserves over the coming financial periods to address any future financial uncertainties and ensure the charity's operational resilience.

There are no funds currently in deficit, and the charity faces no uncertainties about continuing as a going concern. The trustees are confident that the charity is in a stable financial position and can continue to meet its objectives effectively.

Structure, Governance and Management

The charity is governed by a Constitution adopted on 15 May 2023, the date of its formal registration. The charity is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), providing it with its own legal identity and limited liability for trustees.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect,:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
