leisure time occupation of individuals who have, for a variety of reasons, such as the result of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, no time to time.

During the year, the charity experienced excellent development within the church community.

We celebrated several baptisms, marking important faith journeys. Our congregation continued to grow in unity, with stronger relationships forming among members and an increased sense of fellowship.

We also made significant progress in developing and laying the foundations for a more structured approach to support the spiritual and personal growth of the church.
