Cotswold Fayre Charitable Trust

Achievement and Performance

In this, our first full year of operating, the trustees were pleased to be able to support five different charities aligned with one of our main purposes as a charity: the alleviation of poverty. It does seem that there is more requirement within the UK to help people who simply cannot meet their basic needs with the money they have.

Cedarwood Trust - a community food bank in North Shields, where our funds went towards a project to make nutritious frozen meals on site for those in need.

The Cowshed - a project in Reading that helps local families. Our funds go towards Noah boxes, packs of kitchen items that go to provide a great start for people in extremely difficult and traumatic situations.

Alternative Angels - a project for homeless people in Swindon where a hot meal is provided at least twice a week for those in need.

Bala Children's Centre - an orphanage, primary and secondary school in Western Kenya, a part of Kenya with extreme poverty. Our funds went towards continued building project of proper classroom buildings and equipment for the schools.

Community of Purpose - a project for disadvantaged children in the Bristol area, where the funds went to a mentoring project to help teenagers break out of poverty.

All projects are visited from time to time by the trustees and we ensure the funds are spent in the appropriate manner. A successful fund-raising event was held towards the end of the financial year for Cotswold Fayre suppliers, where over £19,000 was raised for the charity. This money will continue to be granted during 2025-26 and we expect a lower balance in the account by March 2026.

We hope to continue to fund these projects and are actively looking for other projects to support in the coming year.

Financial Review

The total incoming resources for the year amounted to £30,057(2024 £14,073). Expenditure in the year amounted to £23,242 (2024£9,306) . This brought the surplus for year to £6,815 (2024 £4,767).

Statement of Trustees Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), including Financial Standards 102 'The Financial Reporting standard applicable in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland'.

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales, The Charities Act 2011, Charity (Accounts and Reports) regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed requires the trustees to prepare financial statements each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP,
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provision of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Cotswold Fayre Charitable Trust Accountants' Report

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Cotswold Fayre Charitable Trust

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2025 set out on pages 4 to 7

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a true and fair view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Cotswold Fayre Charitable Trust

Achievement and Performance

The charity was set up between April and September 2023 but delays due to Lloyds Bank meant that our bank account was not live until the end of October, so the charity was only active for 5 months in this fiscal year.

Monthly meetings to decide where the funds are to be given are held on Zoom by the three trustees with Sam Woodbridge supporting in an administrative role. Only applications that completely meet the aims of the charity are considered, and this year the two projects supported are all alleviating poverty.

Community of Purpose received a donation towards supporting disadvantaged children in the Bristol area by tackling holiday hunger through free activities including lunch. Bala Children's Centre has been supported by Cotswold Fayre for 12 years and that support continues now via the trust. In January 2024, Paul (trustee) took a team over to the centre to work within the school there. We supported buying 50 new desks and new beds to support the growing intake of the secondary school and also funded a water project that will mean the girls at the school can shower properly.

We hope to continue to fund these projects and more in future years.

Financial Review

The total incoming resources for the year amounted to £14,073. Expenditure in the year amounted to £9,306 . This brought the surplus for year to £4,767.

Statement of Trustees Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), including Financial Standards 102 'The Financial Reporting standard applicable in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland'.

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales, The Charities Act 2011, Charity (Accounts and Reports) regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed requires the trustees to prepare financial statements each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP,
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provision of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:
