Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To advance in life and help children and young people living with a long-term condition and/or disability and their families, primarily but not exclusively through: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The provision of recreational and leisure-time activities, in the interests of social welfare, designed to improve their conditions of life, including improvement in health and wellbeing; and• Providing support, resources and activities which develop skills, capacities and capabilities to improve health and wellbeing, enabling participation in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	During the reporting period, Ready Steady Go Hello Charity supported children and young people living with long-term conditions and/or disabilities, and their families, to build confidence, resilience, independence and wellbeing. The charity delivered empowerment, education and support activity through the Ready Steady Go Hello framework, using structured resources and co-produced approaches to support understanding, shared decision-making and participation in everyday life. The charity also provided youth group activity for young people, alongside sessions delivered jointly with patients and parents, supporting peer connection, family understanding and mutual support. Activity initially focused on kidney services and has begun to

		extend to other long-term conditions, in line with the charity's objects and in response to need. All activities were carried out for the public benefit and in furtherance of the charity's charitable purposes.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees have had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and activities, and are satisfied that the charity's activities during the year have been carried out for the public benefit in accordance with its charitable objects.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the reporting period, Ready Steady Go Hello Charity strengthened its delivery of empowerment, education and support for children and young people living with long-term conditions and/or disabilities, and their families. The charity supported beneficiaries to feel more confident, informed and involved in decisions affecting their health and lives. Youth group activity and joint patient-parent sessions helped reduce isolation, build peer connection, and improve family understanding and communication.

		The charity also delivered national study days and education activity for healthcare professionals across multiple specialties, supporting the delivery of the charity's aims by promoting person-centred, developmentally appropriate practice. Feedback from these events was positive and indicated increased confidence and understanding among professionals, contributing to changes in practice aligned with the charity's charitable purposes. Through this work, the charity contributed to wider societal benefit by supporting more consistent, inclusive and empowering approaches to care for people living with long-term conditions.
