CHARITY COMMISSION

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/
members of

Charity Name
CHRIST THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE

On accounts for the year
ended

31 DECEMBER 2025

Charity no (if any)

1203636

Set out on pages

1-2 OF ANNUAL ACCOUNT

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective
responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Charities Act") and that an independent examination is needed. I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [Association International Accountants]. Delete [] if not applicable.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view, and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Para 1.17 and 1.19	The organisation holds regular seminar workshop-style meetings online, which consist of regular structured teaching to make attendants aware and knowledgeable about the principles and beliefs of the Christian faith as well as teaching on deeper theological subjects of the Christian faith. These subjects include: Introduction to Theology, Old and New Testament Surveys, Understanding Pentecostalism in the Diaspora, Diaspora Mission, Ministry and Cross-Cultural awareness, Diaspora Communities in Church History, Understanding Biblical Interpretation, Approaches to Biblical Interpretation, Interpreting the Old Testament and the New Testament, Church History, Biblical Interpretation and Preaching, and World Religions. This is the make-up of the regular meetings that are held every week. The organisation follows a curriculum-style syllabus around these topics listed above. These meetings and services are held via Zoom for our students. The organisation runs these programmes over the course of 2 years, which is broken into 6 modules, at the end of which they issue the attendants a certificate for completing the programmes.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

CHARITY COMMISSION
FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

members of

Charity Name
CHRIST THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE

On accounts for the year

31 DECEMBER 2023

Charity no (if any)

1203636

Set out on pages

1-2 OF ANNUAL ACCOUNT

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective
responsibilities of
trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Charities Act") and that an independent examination is needed. I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [Association International Accountants]. Delete [] if not applicable.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view, and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
