Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Trust deed
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Trust
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Appointment of trustees (1) There must be at least 2 trustees. Apart from the first trustees, every trustee must be appointed by a resolution of the trustees passed at a special meeting called under clause 15 of the deed. (2) In selecting individuals for appointment as trustees, the trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the charity. (3) The trustees must keep a record of the name and address and the dates of appointment, re-appointment and retirement of each trustee. (4) The trustees must make available to each new trustee, on his or her first appointment: (a) a copy of this deed and any amendments made to it; (b) a copy of the charity's latest report and statement of accounts. (5) The first trustees shall hold office for life.

Section C Objects and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are:

1. To advance the Religion of Islam, in the UK, for the benefit of the public in particular, but not exclusively, by:
 - (a) Holding of prayer meetings
 - (b) lectures and courses

to 30th June 2024

(c) producing and/ or distributing literature on Islam, and any other means deemed appropriate to enlighten others about the Islamic faith.

Charity commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them, consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the charities SORP;
- Make judgement and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the Association will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
