Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO remain the same: To advance the Christian religion in Stockton-on-Tees and surrounding areas for the benefit of the public through the holding of prayer meetings, lectures, public celebration of religious festivals producing and/or distributing literature on Christianity to enlighten others about the Christian religion; and To further or benefit the residents of Stockton-on-Tees, surrounding areas and the neighbourhood, without distinction of sex, race or of political, religious or other opinions by associating together the said residents and the local authorities, voluntary and other organisations in a common effort to advance wellbeing and to provide facilities in the interests of social welfare with the objective of improving the conditions of life for the residents.

Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the CIO for the purposes which are not charitable.

We are currently in the process of setting up a community hub.

The intention of this is a safe space for people to come and have food, drink, a warm environment and company.

This includes playing various types of games, putting on films and have conversations.

We have a weekly Sunday service, which is followed by refreshments.

We put on a quarterly prayer and praise service, which has live Christian musicians play.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

We have now set up funding, investment and reserves policies which help lay out how we intend to find funding and how it will be actioned or held once received.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Our main achievement over this time has been to reach out to the community support the welfare of those in need.

Our various regular and ad hoc events have been well received, and we look forward to building on this.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The policy outlines the approach Christ Church Mission takes to managing any reserves held by the organisation. The purpose is to ensure that all reserves are handled responsibly, in alignment with the mission and objectives of the charity. By clearly documenting reserve management, Christ Church Mission aims to maintain transparency and accountability in its financial practices.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

No current deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

At the moment our principal income continues to be regular hire of the venue.

The only current expenditure is for the utility bills for the venue.

We are looking to set up further outreach programmes throughout the year.

We now have an investment policy.
