Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	PRAISE THRONE CHURCH is constituted as a charity organisation with the charity commission
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Association
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	The existing trustees are responsible for the nomination of new trustee. This approach ensures that new trustees are respected members of the faith, the charity and local community and ensures that good relations are fostered between the organisation and the community. In selecting new trustees, we seek to identify people who regularly attend our weekly events and are willing to volunteer to help in our broader community work.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Risk Management

The trustees have assessed the risk the charity faces and have drawn up a risk matrix which identifies the major risks by area of activity, the nature of those risks, the likelihood of the risks happening and the measures taken to manage them. Although the risks impact identified are rated to be minimal and we will continue to monitor this.

Political Affiliation

As a religious organisation, we are not affiliated to any political party and we do not have any motive of doing so in the course of carrying out our activities.

In matters of political issues that affect us, we will be seeking guidance on such and take the appropriate action in conveying our messages.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The principal object is the advancement of Christian faith in the United Kingdom and the relief of poverty. To promote any charitable activity for the benefit of the local people.

The charity adopted the following strategies to achieve its objectives:

- Running seminars in the church with proven ministers of the faith to guide Members in the various aspect of Christian faith,
- Supporting other charities and Christian events,
- Involvement in economic and community development
- Assisting the less privileged in the society irrespective of their religious beliefs, colour, gender or race and within the limits of the resources of the charity.

- Promoting and enhancing the health, economic wellbeing and welfare of members by building, establishing and promoting businesses based on Christian principles

The charity was engaged in various activities in pursuance of its charity objectives and public benefit. Such activities included:

- Community outreach events
- Conferences and events
- Welfare support to members and general public, and various mission activities Organising and engaging in Christian Bible studies, special prayer meetings and night vigil prayer meetings.
- In-house Christian teachings and bible readings,
- Organising annual musical outreach programme to foster love, communication and counselling and support for the people in our local community.
- Organising and celebration of Christian festivals such as Easter and annual Christmas carol for members and people in our local community and sharing Christmas presents.
- Conducting evangelism geared towards sharing the love of Jesus Christ with the community through kind words, conversation, listening with ears and hearts of love and signposting people to relevant places for their respective needs.
- Making charity donations of food and other essential living materials to the local food bank for the needy in our local community.
- Organising and running lectures on Christian and contemporary issues for the benefit of our members and members of our local community.
- Running empowerment seminar to empower our members and members of the public to reach their full potentials in their chosen endeavour and to succeed in all areas of life.
- Organising youth empowerment teachings.
- Engaging in Charity visitation to the sick in hospitals.
- Organising programmes that seek to promote and restore family values.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Grant Making Policy

The church supports visiting ministers of the gospel from both within and outside of the United Kingdom. The church supports other charities and missions that share its objects in advancement of Christian faith and relief of poverty. The church gives occasional grants to congregational members who are in need.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity carries out a wide range of activities in pursuance of its charitable aims. The trustees consider that these activities, summarised below, provide benefit both to those who worship with us and the wider community.

- Weekly Congregation: Our branch meets on a weekly basis for spiritual sessions. During these sessions we have over 35 members who attend on a regular basis. The congregation continues to grow from strength to strength due to increased engagement of members of the organisation.
- Women's Wing: An active women's forum that encourages our women (single, married, divorce and widows) on the best practices of Christianity with periodic lectures. The women's committee also collaborates with sister branches to ensure their activities are responsive to and beneficial to the female members of the Society. The activities include vocational training programmes with the Empowerment committee, Teachings on health and well-being, basic domestic money management, charity visits and welfare of women in general. The forum also recorded a milestone in its activity for the year and the programme was welcomed as a breath of fresh initiative and we do hope this will be improved on in the coming year.
- Youth Wing: We regularly organise lectures on leadership training, seminars and thought-provoking symposia on academic progression and career choices. The objective is to groom leaders of tomorrow. We also organise quarterly picnics to promote fellowship and bonding among the youths, etc.
- Health Promotion: we constantly carry out various health promotion activities to help members understand the importance of healthy living.
- Economic and Empowerment: As part of the organisation's objective, we carried out various activities to empower our members on career pathways, multiple streams of income, Franchise etc. Members have greatly benefited from these activities and we will be looking forward to 2025 to improve on this activity.
