Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- a) To relieve the poor and those in financial hardship by making grants of money for providing or paying for food, clothing and shelter
- b) To advance the education of individuals in particular by the provision of grants of money, scholarships and maintenance allowance.
- c) To advance the Hindu religion for the benefit of the public by providing grants and/or holding events or spiritual discourses
- d) To advance health or the saving of lives by providing grants, items and services to individuals in need and/or charities, or other organisations working to advance health or the saving of lives.

For all the objectives above, the charity supports the objectives by:

Making grants to existing organisations advancing health. Healthcare services are indirectly provided by the organisations or charities that Vrinda trustees wish to benefit through its grants.

Makes grants to organisations providing education to the general public. The trustees always intend to benefit a wide range of educational organisations.

The trustees intend to make grants to organisations involved in the advancement of Hinduism for the public benefit in the UK and India by spreading the message of Truth, Love and Compassion, for the benefit of the general public.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the course of the year, Vrinda Charitable Trust has received a good amount of donations. Using these donations, post year end, in 2025, the charity has primarily been grant making and has made donations to a charitable organisation that has supported events that has promoted the advancement of Hinduism.

The charity has also made some smaller donations to other charitable organisations that support one of Vrinda Charitable Trust's objectives.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

As the charity is primarily grant making, the Trustees agree that holding a specific reserve amount is not required. A nominal amount is reserved for administration costs e.g. audit, submission of reports or banking charges.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the period ended 31/12/2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
