Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	YWAM Kausar supports the work of an arts centre for artists. The community centre does not exist for the advancement of the arts nor is it a cultural centre, it exists to support marginalised artists of various ethnic and linguistic background. The centre can help artists with their communications, offer rehearsal space, enable intercultural collaboration and the creation of new compositions able to draw people of various backgrounds together in events and thereby foster social cohesions. The aim is to develop artist skills and reduce mistrust between diverse communities in London. Our monthly Asian open mic events bring people together from backgrounds as diverse as Japanese, Pakistani, Tamil, Punjabi, Philippino, S.African and Afro Caribbean. These and similar events: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tackle disinformation • Share safe spaces • Refocus attention on the positives of 'the other'

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Overcome barriers to the betterment of one another • Foster kindness, generosity, increase awareness of one another. This kind of cohesion can only be played out at the local level. It builds competence, capacity and skill, helping groups communicate and solve tensions between them it also helps inter-generationally. “Beyond us and Them: Policy and Practice for Strengthening Social Cohesion in local areas. The Cohesiosn and Intergration Network. Dominic Abrams and Fanny Lalot. University of Kent. New musical compositions are being developed as a direct result of this collorabitive activity
