Annual Report 2023

Chair's Report

It is with great pride and optimism that I present the first Annual Report for Sanctuary Breaks, marking a milestone in what has been a highly rewarding year for our charity. Officially registered with the Charity Commission in August 2023 (Registration No. 1204540), Sanctuary Breaks was founded with the aim of improving the lives of refugees, those seeking asylum, and survivors of torture by offering opportunities for recreation and social connection. Our mission is to create safe, supportive environments where individuals facing significant social challenges can experience moments of respite and joy. This year has been one of growth and transformation. We have made remarkable strides in building partnerships, delivering activities, and establishing a presence in the community. Looking ahead, we remain deeply committed to making a lasting, positive impact on the lives of those we serve.

Our Mission and Purpose

Sanctuary Breaks exists to provide or assist in the provision of facilities for the recreation and leisure of individuals who need such services because of their social circumstances. Our work focuses particularly on those who are refugees, seeking asylum, or have been victims of torture. Through our activities, we aim to improve their conditions of life, offering safe, welcoming spaces where they can relax, engage, and build connections with others.

Governance

Our charity is governed by a passionate and dedicated group of six trustees, whose collective expertise has been instrumental in guiding us through our first year. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to:

- John Patrick Njau
- Naomi Millner
- Sally Pickering
- Judith Large
- Julie Keogan
- Ramesh Sivarajah

Our Activities in 2023

In 2023, our key program, Days Out, took centre stage. Through this initiative, we provided people with opportunities to experience the joy and relaxation of simple, nature-based activities, while building a sense of community. We partnered with Gloucestershire Action for Refugees and Asylum Seekers (GARAS), forging a strong and supportive relationship that has allowed us to better reach and serve those in need.

Throughout the year, we welcomed 90 visitors, including 50 new faces, to our Days Out events. Our guests come from a wide range of countries, including Afghanistan, Colombia, Eritrea, Nigeria, Syria, Venezuela, Russia, and more.

Our activities are designed to foster a sense of belonging and well-being. Visitors took part in a variety of activities including:

- Home-cooked meals and shared lunches
- Village walks and nature explorations (e.g. blackberrying, taking photos of the local scenery)
- Kite flying, music making, and singing
- Crafts, gardening, and art activities
- Tea, cake, and good conversation

Each day is an opportunity to unwind, connect with others, and share in the joy of simple pleasures. It's been heartwarming to see how these activities have brought people together and provided an opportunity for relaxation and social engagement.

"We are happy here, to talk, being together"

"It feels like home here"

"We forget we are asylum seekers"

Our Days Out days were supported by 12 volunteers, whose passion and dedication have been vital in making each day a success. From preparing meals to leading activities, our volunteers have been at the heart of what we do, and we are deeply grateful for their involvement.

Therapy Days. GARAS have used Hill House for therapy days for young people, with remarkable results. This will continue.

Away Days. Refugee Support Organisations from Bristol and Gloucester have used the house for away days for staff and residential stays for those they support. This will continue.

Events. In January we held a launch party for Sanctuary Breaks inviting guests, trustees, volunteers and local dignitaries to join us in a celebration and joint visioning exercise. We plan to repeat this event on a regular basis.

We supported the first of a series of culinary community engagement days through 'A Taste of Home' and will continue to support these day events.

Building Connections

We launched a new website to provide clear, easy access to information about our activities and how people can get involved. In addition, we started a regular newsletter for our volunteers, keeping everyone up to date on events, opportunities, and important news.

We found WhatsApp to be a highly effective tool for staying connected with our visitors. By sharing updates, reminders, and details about upcoming events, we've been able to maintain a strong, supportive relationship with those who attend our activities.

Funding and Financial Support

Donations and grants totalling £10k were secured.

We have applied for £15k of funding and are awaiting outcomes.

Grants will be pivotal in supporting our activities, and will allow us to employ our first member of staff - a new p/t development worker.

Looking Ahead

Reflecting on our achievements this year, we are excited about the future of Sanctuary Breaks.

Our plans include:

expanding our Days Out program to reach more individuals and families enhancing our volunteer network

continuing to build meaningful partnerships within the community and with other organisations supporting our client base.

We aim to increase understanding and connection between local communities and refugees and those seeking asylum through supporting one-off events including 'A Taste of Home', Storytelling performances, and Art and Craft events.

A Heartfelt Thank You

I would like to extend my deepest thanks to everyone who has supported Sanctuary Breaks in its first year—our trustees, volunteers, partners, and donors. Your commitment, energy, and belief in our mission have made all of this possible.
