

CHARITY COMMISSION
FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From Period start date 01/09/2023 To Period end date 01/05/2024

Charity name: Christians Together Worldwide

Charity registration number: 1204554

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	1. To advance the Christian faith in such ways and in such parts of the United Kingdom or the world as Trustees may from time to time think fit; and 2. To protect and advance fundamental human rights in accordance with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and/or the European Convention on Human Rights and/or UK domestic human rights law, in particular but not exclusively rights to freedom of religion or belief, freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and non-discrimination for Christians whose beliefs are in accordance with the basis of faith of the Evangelical Alliance in such parts of the United Kingdom as the trustees shall from time to time think fit by all or any of the following means: (a) Obtaining redress for the victims of human rights abuse; (b) Relieving need among victims of human rights abuse; (c) Monitoring abuses of human rights; (d) Educating the public about human rights; (e) Commenting on proposed human rights legislation; (f) Contributing to the sound administration of human rights law. In furtherance of that object but not otherwise, the trustees shall have power to engage in political activity provided that the trustees are satisfied that the proposed activities will further the purposes of the Charity to an extent justified by the resources committed and the activity is not the dominant means by which the Charity carries out its objects. Where any human right is to be advanced by means of litigation, this is limited to establishing the primacy of relevant laws which either form part of the domestic law of the state concerned (including for the avoidance of doubt legal proceedings before any Constitutional court) or are binding on that law and where the state concerned has implemented the relevant treaty obligations so as to provide a competent domestic constitutional court empowered to determine this or where there is an international tribunal, the legitimacy of which has been recognised by the state concerned and whose decisions as a matter of domestic law bind the domestic law of the state concerned.

Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Supporting those seeking to enforce their human rights through litigation or other kinds of dispute resolution, in particular but not exclusively rights to freedom of religion or belief, freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and non-discrimination for Christians whose beliefs are in accordance with the basis of faith of the Evangelical Alliance. Disseminating information to the public, specifically to advance knowledge of the legal position in relation to human rights. Thereby, to ensure the public are informed enough to enforce their rights and also to avoid infringing on the rights of others. Connecting individuals and organisations interested in furthering the same objects as those of the charity in order to better coordinate use of resources.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm they have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.
