Overview of Activities

From March 2024 to January 2025, Al Haramain Mosque and Education Centre has remained steadfast in its mission to serve the community through religious, educational, and social support initiatives. Our focus has been on fostering spiritual growth, enhancing educational opportunities, and providing assistance to those in need.

Key Activities Conducted:

1. Daily Community Gatherings and Prayers:

- Hosted daily prayers for community members, creating a welcoming and spiritual environment.
- Organised Jummah (Friday) prayers, attracting consistent attendance and providing a space for communal worship.

2. Children's Classes and Educational Support:

- Provided regular educational classes for 35 children, offering a safe and supportive learning environment.
- Supplied all necessary resources, such as books, stationery, and other teaching aids, completely free of charge.
- Paid wages for qualified teachers (£991 per month), ensuring high-quality education.

- Covered additional class expenses amounting to £100 monthly and other occasional needs (e.g., pens, extra books).

3. Community Gatherings and Social Support:

- Hosted monthly community gatherings to promote unity and mutual support.
- Supported the community during Ramadan, organising prayers, distributing iftar meals, and providing food for the needy.
- Assisted the homeless and vulnerable individuals by distributing food and essential supplies.
