Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are for the public benefit to advance such charitable purposes (according to the laws of England and Wales) as the trustees see fit from time to time.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the year, the charity supported a range of organisations through cash donations.

These contributions spanned both local and international causes, reflecting the charity's commitment to making a positive impact at different levels of need.

Examples of the support provided include:

- Funding educational initiatives in Bangladesh
- Assisting with operational costs for a local community centre
- Providing clothing for refugees resettled locally
- Supporting the relocation of a family from a war-torn country

Through these activities, the charity has been able to address both immediate humanitarian needs and longer-term community development.

The trustees confirm that they have complied with the duty in section 17 of The Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission in determining the activities undertaken by the charity.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the year, the charity supported a range of organisations through cash donations.

These contributions spanned both local and international causes, reflecting the charity's commitment to making a positive impact at different levels of need.

Examples of the support provided include:

- Funding educational initiatives in Bangladesh
- Assisting with operational costs for a local community centre
- Providing clothing for refugees resettled locally
- Supporting the relocation of a family from a war-torn country

Through these activities, the charity has been able to address both immediate humanitarian needs and longer-term community development.

The charity has successfully invested its funds in a diversified range of products designed to deliver a steady and sustainable return in future years.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity intends to maintain and grow its reserves each year, with the aim of using only a proportion of the investment income generated to fund charitable activities

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's principal source of income is donations from the Trustees.

These funds are invested with the objective of generating returns and building the charity's reserves.

A proportion of the investment income is then allocated towards charitable activities, ensuring both immediate impact and long-term sustainability.

Section F Other optional information

Section G Declaration

Set out on pages

1-2

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 / 12 / 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
