Charity name: Talking Forward

Charity registration number: 1205318

Objectives and Activities

Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	The relief of emotional and psychological distress amongst partners, ex-partners and family members in England and Wales of people who are under investigation, convicted, sentenced or cautioned for online sexual offences, through the provision of peer and professional support.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Talking Forward is a UK-registered charity, founded in 2021, and committed to addressing the largely unacknowledged harms experienced by all adult family members when someone is being investigated for, or is convicted of, child sexual abuse material (CSAM) offences. We support all adult family members, including partners, ex-partners, parents, grandparents, siblings, and adult children, through free national peer support groups delivered online. Our team of volunteers seek to contact family members as soon as possible after the 'knock', to reassure, advise and, above all, listen. We know that families feel very much alone at this time, and our goal is to remove some of that isolation. Through our peer support groups, family members can share their experiences, receive advice and support, but most importantly, they feel that they are not alone. Family members impacted by this are not defined as victims in the Victim Code. Access to traditional victim support is therefore not available, and because a large proportion of those convicted will not receive a custodial sentence, charities designed to support the families of prisoners are not open to these individuals. Talking Forward are the only UK charity providing free, trauma-informed peer support for adult family members affected by this crime. We are led by a team of Trustees that represent key sectors within the criminal justice system and wider support agencies. Our Chair of Trustees is a Professor of Law and Social Justice; our Secretary works for the Child Rescue Coalition (Cath Cox) and our Treasurer is Claire Cheeseman - Director of Operations for the Marie Collins Foundation. Other Trustees work within the criminal justice system, academia, prisons, police and probation.

Additional information

Contribution made by volunteers	We are a volunteer-led organisation with no full-time staff. We operate on shoestring budgets, powered by lived experience, research insight, and an unshakable commitment to fairness and integrity. Apart from a paid freelance administrator, our activities are delivered exclusively by volunteers. This includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the initial call (30-60 minutes per person, with follow up) with new clients to understand their position, support needs and explain how the peer support model works. • weekly online peer support groups, each need 2 facilitators for between 2 & 2.5 hours per session. • Ad hoc workshops and question & answer sessions are also delivered (eg trauma informed workshop, Police & Probation Q&A session – these additional sessions are delivered throughout the year, and are based on the professional expertise of individual volunteers.

Achievements and Performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Our Impact so far: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 250+ family members supported, with consistent growth in referrals: This growing number reflects the urgent, unmet need for support among families affected by CSAM investigations and the trust being built in our services.• Pioneering police partnerships, delivering early intervention at the point of warrant: By working directly with police forces, we are able to be a point of contact for family members shortly after 'the Knock', offering vital reassurance and support when it matters the most.• National policy engagement, with evidence cited by forces and researchers: Our insights are shaping conversations at a national level, informing best practices in policing, safeguarding, and support services for indirect victims.• Active collaboration with other charities: We are part of a growing network committed to filling the gaps in support provision, ensuring families receive holistic care without duplication or delay.• Research-informed programming, grounded in trauma theory, grief psychology, and secondary victimisation frameworks: Every aspect of our support is rooted in evidence, helping us respond effectively to the emotional, practical and social harms families experience.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Constitution of a Charitable Incorporated Organisation whose only voting members are its charity trustees, and Articles of Association
How is the charity constituted?	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Given the niche focus of the charity, new trustees are recruited through existing professional networks, to support volunteer recruitment, research and advocacy aims, as well as fundraising. Once proposed by an existing trustee, the new trustee is then circulated to the board and the appointment ratified at a quarterly meeting.
